Schardt named to Girl's State

McKenna Schardt

The Davenport American Legion Auxiliary has selected McKenna Schardt as their 2015 representative to Cornhusker Girl's State in June.

This year's session of Cornhusker Girl's State will be held May 31 to June 6 at the University of Nebraska campus.

McKenna is the daughter of Nathan and Robin Schardt of Davenport. She is a junior at Bruning-Davenport USD, where she is active in National Honor Society, FCCLA, band and choir. She was a member of the 2015 runner-up speech team. She is a team member of the volleyball, basketball and track teams and is a member of the Letter Club. Ms. Schardt is also a member of St. Peter's Church in Davenport and is a member of the Active Christian Teens. She is also involved in 4-H.

Girl's State is a nationwide program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Each year more than 400 girls from throughout the state are offered an opportunity to be active participants in a structured role-play that emphasizes our Democratic form of government.

The selection process is difficult and only the most qualified high school junior girls are selected to participate. The students have demonstrated an interest in learning about the government process and are leaders in their high schools.

Belvidere

By LaDonna Avers

It is with great sorrow I write these words this week. Please excuse the shortened column, but Belvidere lost a great lady this week.

Teresa Priefert Demma suffered a brain aneurysm and after surgery subsequently joined the angels on Wednesday. She was my niece and I find I just can't think about other news.

Teresa was the daughter of Russ and Bonnie Priefert and her funeral services will be over by the time you read this.

I will be back on line next week with Easter news and other things.

Letter To The Editor

Letter to Editor:
 A 70-year Owner-Tenant Relationship--

It was the spring of 1945 when P. F. (Pat) Huber (deceased 1994) was approached by local Hebron physician Dr. Samuel Panter, asking if he would be interested in renting 80 acres that he owned two miles northeast of Hebron.

I was a 17-year-old senior at Hebron High at the time and not wanting to continue my education, as higher education at that time was not my interest.

Dad jumped at the offer. And thus began what might well be a record for length of years rented with the same family ownership, the Panter, and with the same family as tenants, the Hubers.

I vividly recall plowing that first 80 with that two bottom 16-inch plow and a Farmall F-20 tractor. In a long day you might get 15 acres. But that was the way it was. No cab, no air conditioning, no power steering, just you along with the heat, the dust and the bugs.

Then, in 1947, another Panter quarter section was rented, this one two miles east of Hebron. Another 80 acres were rented two miles southeast of Hebron in 1952.

In 1957, Dr. Panter passed away and his daughter Maxine became our landlord. She lived in Chicago and had no experience or interest in the newly acquired inheritance. She turned it over to The Farmers National Co. to manage and to this day it remains as such.

The first manager in 1957 was Virgil Holtgrew to the present manager being Jeff Monhollon. It infuriated my dad as he always thought that anything worth owning was worth looking after personally. But I found it much simpler than dealing with Maxine, an individual who really had no idea or concept of the farm, farming, and especially the ASCS programs.

The relationship with the Panter's came very close to expiring in the summer of 1948.

Dr. Panter was probably one of the earlier land reformers. It was in the fine print of his leases, unbeknownst to me, that nothing was to ever be burned on his property. I do know for a fact that he never had to unplug a plow when it was totally plugged with wheat straw. Anyway, I had a match in my pocket on that hot summer afternoon and was burning some straw, when who was to drive by but the good doctor. I was quite severely reprimanded not only by Dr. Panter but also my dad. The lease survived!

I was the sole tenant during the 60's and until the Fall of 1974, when my son, Douglas, and I formed a partnership called "Huber Farms." It was during this period of time when new things and new terms were instituted in agriculture, i.e., selective herbicides (Atrazine and Propazine), Anhydrous Ammonia, and farming was forever changed. I still remember those two 50-gallon polyethylene barrels hung on the side of my 3020 John Deere.

The partnership with my son was dissolved in 1999. Today it is Douglas' son, Chris Huber, who is the tenant. And, if one observes closely, you will note riding either in the tractor or the combine is the fifth generation Huber, the young 11-year-old son of Chris and Tara, Caydon Jon Huber.

Now, in this year of 2015, its no-till farming, pivot irrigation, 16 thru 48 row planters, 30 foot cutterbars, fertilizer, chemicals, semi trucks, GPS mapping, air conditioned cab with heaters, drones, 1000 bu grain carts and the list goes on.

As I look back, never in my wildest dreams could I have imagined the changes that have occurred in agriculture in a relatively short period of time, to me anyway...70 years. One has to wonder if it is possible that in the year 2085, will people look back to 2015 and say "how crude."

(Is this a record? Or if not, almost?)

BDS boys take third; girls take fourth

On Tuesday, the BDS track team traveled to Friend to participate in the Turkey Creek Relays. On a perfect day for a track meet with little wind and temperatures in the 70's, both teams did well. The boys finished in third place and the girls ended up tied for fourth.

The boys had several gold medal performances as everything was scored in pairs in the field events to follow the theme of a relay meet. The team of Blake Stengel and Thomas Mick took first place in the pole vault for the only field event gold, while the hurdle relay group of Grant Norder, Sam Christensen, Ben Elznic, and Hunter Krehnke were also able to finish first. Two more golds were gained when Norder was joined on the 800 relay by Nate Hendrickson, Cody Garland, and Kendall Dixon and Garland and Dixon teamed up with Kale Kleinschmidt and TJ Krupicka in the 1600 medley.

Other relay finishes for the boys were Colton Lowery and Holden Stengel fourth in the discus, Charlie Martin, Karson Dickson, Brett Holtzen and Chris Rohr fourth in the 3200 relay, while Holtzen and Dickson also teamed up with Josh Hinrichs and Kale Smith to finish fourth in the Distance Medley. The team of Noel Gines, Jayden Otto, Kale Kleinschmidt and Krupicka took fifth in the 3200 medley, as did the 400 relay team of Mick, Jacob Swartzen-druber, Taylor and Tyler Anderson. Dickson teamed with Chris Lichti to finish fifth in the pole vault, while Kale Smith and Christensen took fifth in the high jump. Taylor and Brandon Anderson were sixth in the triple jump, as was the 1600 relay team made up of Krehnke, Otto, Rohr, and Gines.

The girls' lone gold came in the pole vault as Catherine Mick and Tristen Mosier teamed up for a first place finish. There were a pair of silvers though as Mosier and Mick were joined by McKenna Schardt and Megan Grote for a second place finish in the hurdle relay and then Mick and Mosier were joined by Mashaya Dierking and Carley Elznic in the 800 relay for another second place run.

Other places for the girls were third in the high jump by Brice Ardissono and Grote, third as well in the pole vault when Courtney Kamler and Nicole Swartzenruber joined up. Cortney was joined by Lexi Kadel, Haley Pena Lopez, and Johanna Kluck to take fourth in the 3200 medley. Schardt, Swartzenruber, and Dierking were joined by Faith Stengel to take fifth in the 400 relay, and Mick, Mosier, Brice Ardissono and Swartzenruber were fifth in the 1600 relay as well. The lone sixth place finish went to the 3200 relay team of Morgan Lowery, Kim Ardissono, Pena Lopez and Brice Ardissono.

Freshman pitcher finds confidence, has 20 inning no-hit streak

Reprinted with permission of Doaneline.

By Alex Dawson
Staff Writer
Doaneline - Doane College

It took two shaky appearances and one coach's pre-game pep talk before freshman pitcher Caleb Goedecken found his groove for the Tiger baseball team. Now, 20 innings later, he has yet to give up another run.

His rookie status showed during his first career appearance Feb. 15 against Texas Wesleyan University, giving up three hits, three walks, and three runs over 1.2 innings of relief. Five days later against Tabor College he walked in the only two batters he faced, giving up one run.

"In his first outings he didn't last too long," senior teammate Brandon Stennis said, "(it seemed) he was struggling to get a feel for college baseball."

Goedecken said he struggled to throw strikes and had issues with confidence in his first appearances. The Hebron native was used to high school Legion ball where the level of competition was no way near that of the teams the Tigers faced, he said.

That all changed on March 7. Before his appearance against Kansas Wesleyan University, Assistant Coach Josh Oltmans took him aside to talk about improving his level of confidence on the mound, Goedecken said.

"Confidence is huge," Goedecken said. "It took Coach getting on me to finally realize it, it took a while to feel it, to get it, but once it did happen I tried to keep the same mentality (for every game)."

Goedecken went out and pitched two scoreless innings of relief where he allowed one hit and zero walks. Three days later against La Sierra University he got his first start and dined 11 strikeouts for an eight-inning shutout before senior Zach Jensen closed the ninth for the 8-0 Tiger win. A week later, Goedecken was at it again with a complete game shutout (seven innings) against Central Christian College where he struck out five.

In his last two appearances Goedecken threw 2.1 scoreless innings against Morningside on March 29, coming on in relief in both games of a doubleheader.

Oltmans' philosophy of 'fake' and 'true' confidence seemed to apply to Goedecken, fake confidence being the type of comfort one might have at the high school level when competitors are less athletically gifted, and true confidence being the kind of self-assurance one feels against competitors who you know are talented, he said. "When the skill level of your opponent rises you have to be truly confident," Oltmans said, "Caleb realized that."

Oltmans, who played in the same Legion league as Goedecken during his time as a player, initially contacted Goedecken about signing with the Tigers when he was impressed by a photograph of him pitching in a newspaper story, "I saw his picture and I said to myself, 'This guy probably can pitch,'" Oltmans said.

Stennis, a fellow pitcher, said Goedecken constantly gave the team a chance to win, "When we can go put up zeroes it's only a matter of time before our lineup starts crossing the plate," he said. In comparison to the Goedecken he saw take the mound in February, Stennis said he now saw a completely different pitcher that had made a 180 degree change for the better. Stennis defined what he saw in Goedecken as "electric."

A self-labelled 'pitch to contact' style of pitcher,

Goedecken's go-to pitch was his fastball, he said. Sitting at 83-84 mph, the righty's pitch tails in towards a right-handed batter, forcing righties to roll over and ground out, and lefties to pop up.

Baseball season was never long enough for Goedecken who could only play during the summer, "having a limited amount of time with it made me love it," he said. At Doane he was able to dedicate more of his time and effort into baseball.

"It's a huge difference, it's so much better, I don't just have a few months, now I get a whole year," he said.

But baseball isn't everything for the freshman. Goedecken, who competed in football, wrestling and track and field in high school, said he picked Doane through his interest in the baseball program but also the strong influence professors had on him during his campus visit. He understood that academics was always going to be a priority for him, and felt that the degree he could attain at Doane would give him an advantage when it came time for job applications, he said.

"He's got a great work ethic and takes his academics very seriously," Stennis said, "he's a smart kid with a good head on his shoulders and knows where he wants to go." Stennis also said Goedecken was mature and had a good mental approach in baseball, "On the field he's always calm," he said, "he might not seem super energetic or outgoing, but he's reserved," a good skill to have for a rookie pitcher in college.

Oltmans was pleased with the progress he had seen in Goedecken in the little time he had been a Tiger, "it's fun to see him mature as an individual and as a player," he said, "he's not a finished product but none of us are."

science and psychology and graduated from Nebraska Methodist College with a master's degree in medical group administration.

Jarecki brings experience from University of Nebraska Medical Center and most recently from Good Shepherd Lutheran Community, a multi-level healthcare facility located in Blair, Nebraska. While at Good Shepherd Lutheran, Jarecki served as Assistant Administrator for over three and a half years.

Growing up in Albion, Nebraska, which is just a couple of hours north of Hebron, he feels comfortable in Thayer County since it is similar to his rural upbringing. Jarecki's parents still live in Albion and own both a greenhouse/floral shop and a landscaping/lawn care business. He has three older brothers. Jarecki keeps busy at his family gatherings as he has five nephews with lots of energy.

Alan has been an asset to the Blue Valley Lutheran Homes team and a major part of the community of care.

In his first four months at Blue Valley Lutheran Homes he has already made some positive changes. The sun room in the Nursing Home is undergoing a major remodel and will be done soon.

Work environment and employee morale has seen a boost as he is very approachable and recently implemented a restructure of the pay scale for employees at all of the facilities.

Future plans that have been introduced by Jarecki and approved by the Foundation Board includes a $35,000 remodel of the Care Home, a $45,000 remodel of Courtyard Terrace and 14 rooms in the Nursing Home being remodeled.

He is also working with a team to implement a wellness program for employees. Additionally, he has really connected with staff members and residents, making himself at home in each of the facilities.

Locally, he is also a member of the Hebron Volunteer Fire Department.

Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture Ranch Horse Team hosted competition.

"Punchy in Pink Spring Roundup" was the title chosen by Curtis college students who hosted their first nationally-approved working ranch horse competition.

The Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture Ranch Horse Team raised money for breast cancer awareness during a March 20-22 show in McCook.

In their first endeavor with a show sanctioned by the American Stock Horse Association and Colorado-Wyoming-Nebraska Stock Horse Association, NCTA students and volunteers hosted riders to the Kiplinger Arena at the Red Willow County Fairgrounds.

Collegiate teams, open division riders, youth, and competitors of all ages and abilities competed for prizes, ASHA and CoWN points. Money was raised for Breast Cancer Awareness, said Joanna Hergenreder, NCTA ranch horse team coach and faculty member.

Professional Horse Trainer Jeremy Knoles of Hershey hosted an all-day cow work and reining clinic on Friday, with Working Cow and Reining classes on Saturday and Trail and Pleasure classes on the third day.

In addition to helping run the show, the NCTA Ranch Horse Team had many members compete. They included Whitney Brown (Non-Pro), Patrick Zochol (Non-Pro), Hanna Christenson (Limited Non-Pro), Drake Johnson (Limited Non-Pro), AJ Pestello (Novice), Makayla Forsythe (Novice), Macey Novotne (Novice), McKenzie Beals (Novice), and Tanner Castaldo (Green Horse Non-Pro).

Les Zadina of Ogallala judged the reining, working cow, and pleasure classes. NCTA's Roy Cole judged the trail class.

The NCTA Team earned second place collegiate team, one point behind first place. Individual results were:

Whitney Brown of Imperial and Two Feathers won the All-Around Collegiate Non-Pro Division. The pair placed first in working cow, first in trail, first in pleasure, and second in reining.

Pat Zochol of Alliance and Hollywood placed fourth All-Around in the Collegiate Non-Pro Division. They placed second in trail, third in reining, fifth in working cow, and fifth in pleasure.

Hanna Christenson of Ord and Ima Squall placed sixth All-Around in the Collegiate Limited Non-Pro Division. The pair placed third in pleasure, sixth in reining, sixth in working cow, and tenth in trail.

Drake Johnson of Thurston and Smart War placed eighth All-Around in the Collegiate Limited Non-Pro Division. They placed third in reining, seventh in trail, tenth in working cow, and tenth in pleasure.

AJ Pestello of Breckenridge, Colo., and Strait Delta Cutter placed second All-Around in the Collegiate Novice Division. They placed first in trail, second in working cow, ninth in pleasure, and ninth in reining.

Makayla Forsythe of Garland and Four Sieto Gill placed sixth All-Around in the Collegiate Novice Division. They placed fifth in working cow, fifth in reining, ninth in trail, and tenth in pleasure.

Macey Novotne of Kearney and Bandito placed 12th All-Around in the Collegiate Novice Division at her first collegiate show. The pair placed sixth in working cow, 11th in reining, 12th in trail, and 19th in pleasure.

McKenzie Beals of Alexandria and Leos Bobbette Bee placed 18th All-Around in the Collegiate Novice Division. The pair placed 14th in trail, 15th in working cow, 19th in reining, and 20th in pleasure. This was Beal's first show and aboard a horse she had started working with six days before the show.

Tanner Castaldo of Beeville, Texas, and Tejas placed seventh All-Around in the Green Horse Non-Pro Division in their first show. They placed fifth in trail, seventh in reining, seventh in pleasure, and eighth in working cow.

Team members Raeanna Jordan, Rebekah Lamberson, and Mariah Stamper were essential to running the show, Hergenreder said. Volunteers included NCTA friends and staff Rio McGinley, Darrian Jones, Matt Dole, Catherine Hauptman, Shelly Wills, and Jennifer McConville. Robin and Brooke Miller ran the show office, processed entries and results.

"Overall, the show was a huge success and will be hosted again next year," Hergenreder said. "We would like to thank everyone who came to watch, our sponsors and all who contributed to making this show so successful!"

NOTICE OF ELECTION

VILLAGE OF CHESTER - THAYER COUNTY, NEBRASKA
SPECIAL BOND ELECTION - MAY 12, 2015

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to a resolution passed by the Board of the Village of Chester, a special bond election has been called and will be held in said Village on the 12th day of May, 2015, at which time the following question will be submitted to the qualified electors of the Village for their approval or rejection:

"Shall the Village of Chester, Nebraska, construct a new building to be used for municipal purposes, including use in connection with providing fire and rescue services and storing and maintaining vehicles and equipment used for fire and rescue service, at a cost not to exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000) and borrow money and pledge the property and credit of the Village upon its negotiable bonds in the principal amount of not to exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for the purpose of constructing such new building; said bonds to be general obligation bonds issued pursuant to Section 17-954 of the Nebraska Revised Statutes, dated and to become due and payable, both principal and interest, on such date or dates as may be fixed by the Board of the Village at the time of their issuance and to bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the Board; and Shall the Village cause to be levied and collected annually, a special levy of taxes on the taxable value of all the taxable property in the Village, and all other taxes, in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds as such principal and interest become due?"

- FOR said building, bonds and tax.
- AGAINST said building, bonds and tax.

If a majority of the votes cast upon such question shall be in favor of such building, bonds and tax, then the Board of the Village shall be empowered to issue such bonds and to impose a tax upon all of the taxable property in the Village sufficient to pay the interest on and principal of such bonds as the same shall fall due. The special election will be conducted by mail. Ballots will be mailed to eligible voters no earlier than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the election and no later than ten (10) days prior to the date of the election. The deadline for receipt of ballots is 5:00 p.m. on May 12, 2015, the date of the election.
