Western National Bank in Chester Holds Open House

JR Photo/J Crouse

New bank owners (l-r): Barb and Dallen George and Brian and Cindy Lavelle.

The former State Bank of Chester is now the Western National Bank. They held an Open House last Friday afternoon and had a large crowd in attendance. Formerly, the bank was under the direction of "hometown boy" Alan Porter. The bank's new owners are "hometown boy," Dallen George and his good friend, Brian Lavelle.

Western National Bank is a Community Bank that is dedicated to the communities of Chester, Summerfield and Cairo.

President Dallen George has been in banking since 1988. He is married to Barb and they have two children. Cecilia is a freshman at K-State and Alise is an 8th grader at Scott Middle School in Lincoln. Dallen spends three to four days a week in Chester and works with existing customers in Lincoln the other days.

CEO Brian Lavelle is originally from Odebolt, Iowa, and has been in banking since 1999. Prior to that he was in pharmaceutical manufacturing in Lincoln. He is married to Cindy and they have two children. David graduated from Midland University and is employed by State Farm Insurance in Lincoln, Neb. Adam graduated from Western Kentucky and is employed by Western National Bank. Brian spends three to four days a week in Summerfield and works with existing customers in Lincoln the other days.

On April 1, Alan Porter retired from the bank and will serve as President/Emeritus and on the Board of Directors going forward. The remaining staff will remain unchanged at the Chester location.

Motioned by Catlett, seconded by Hogeland, to approve claims and payment to be made from the proper funds. All in favor, motioned carried.

Mr. Jeremy Voss, Executive Director of Thayer County Economic Development Alliance was present to share projects that he has planned for the county, such as being in a HOP (housing) Project, to assist new businesses of interest in this area, being a few of his goals. Much discussion was the interest of cleaning up vacant housing. His wish is to get introduced to the Village of Bruning and to visit with the Board members to get input on setting forth a growing community.

Ms. Betty Brock, owner/operator of Betty's Place requested a Special Designated Liquor Permit for the Bruning Alumni Celebration to be held Sat. May 24, 2014. This will be held at the Bruning Opera House, 141 E Main Street, and the hours will be from 4:00 P.M to 2:00 A. M. Motioned by Bentley, seconded by Hogeland to approve request. All in favor and the motion carried.

Thayer County Zoning Commissioner, Chris Frye submitted an application from Mr. Dean Reinsch to construct an 18 x 20 foot screened in porch on the south side of their home located at 432 South Fillmore Street. Motioned by Catlett to approve the request, seconded by Krehnke. All in favor, motioned carried.

Discussion was a donation to the Pastime Club to assist in hosting the annual Easter Egg Hunts. Motioned by Catlett to donate $200.00 for the prizes etc., seconded by Bentley. All in favor, motioned carried.

In Old Business; An E-mail was discussed the Village received from Mr. David Ziska, Olsson Associate Representative, regarding the progress started on funding the new well. His plans are for Mr. Bob Byrkit, Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services, to preview and evaluate the well site with Mr. Houser. He also mentioned that Steve McNulty, from the HHS, will be looking in to a possibility of a loan relief, with reasoning for a second back-up well due to the high nitrate levels of the current back up well, this will have to be further reviewed.

Deputy Sheriff Kriesel presented his report.

Mr. Krehnke reported that the generator has been repaired, and the Board seemed satisfied that this repair should fix the problem.

Blobaum and Busboom, P.C. Certified Public Accountants have completed the Financial Statements for September 30, 2013. The Clerk handed these to the Board members, she then reminded the Board that she will be absent for vacation April 6-11, 2014.

Being no other business the meeting was adjourned.

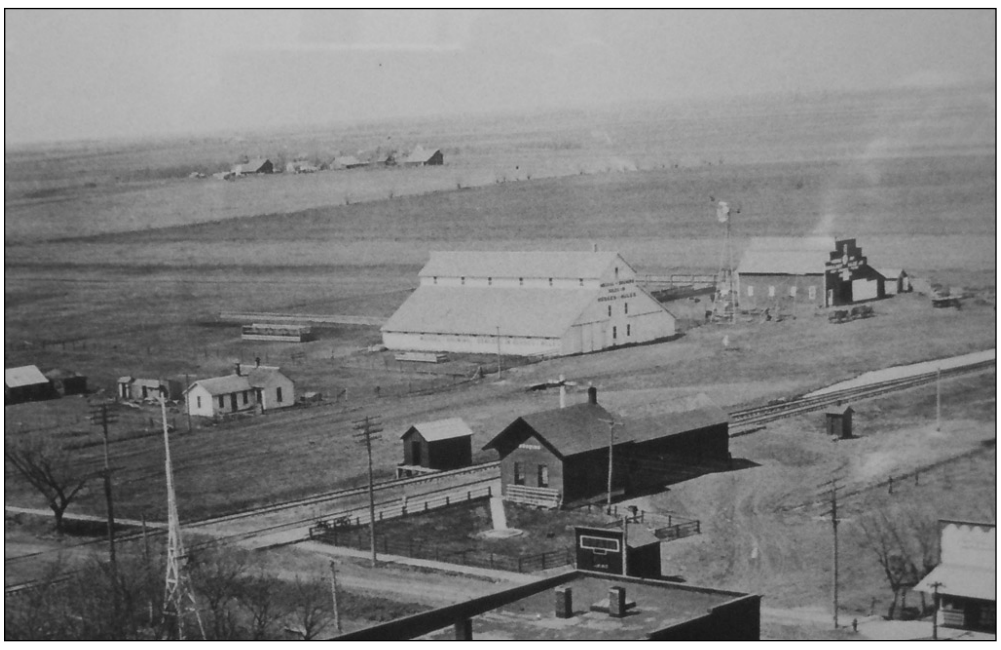
the help of George Gerdes.

The building was originally owned by the Wessel family. When the family relocated, the barn became the property of the Martin family.

Paintings and pictures of this barn can be found all across the county, said Thayer County Museum curator Jackie Williamson.

"It was a great landmark for Bruning," Bruning said.



In this photo from 1915, the view from the water tower in Bruning is shown. This photo is currently on display at Bruning State Bank in Bruning. In the middle of the picture, the barns of the Wessel and Bruning Horse and Mule Company are shown.

Oak

By Phyllis Schmidt

Rehearsal for the Philip Sears and Julia Dry wedding was held at the First Community Church on Friday evening. The rehearsal supper was held at Chances R in York. The wedding was on Saturday at the church in Oak with the reception held at the Community Center in Davenport. It was nice to see Philip's grandmother, Verla Snyder, there, coming all the way from Illinois.

Those from Nelson attending the festivities on Saturday were Muriel Follmer, Donna Gillan, and Gerry Eckles to honor Philip and Julia.

Attending the funeral of Jay Rasmussen in Nelson on Wednesday were the Eckles and McCutchan families and Donna Gillan.

Jayne Pohlmeier accompanied Lola Biltoft to Hastings on Monday for Lola's doctor appointment.

Monday visitors of Phyllis Schmitt were Pastor Keith and Lynda Brich. Jackie Cox took Phyllis to Hebron for her doctor's appointment. Carol Meyer brought dinner and ate with Phyllis on Tuesday. Dixie Drohman took her mother to York on Thursday for her final doctor's appointment, then Phyllis and Dixie visited Ermalee Scroggin before leaving York.

Donna Gillan attended Tai Chi on both Tuesday and Thursday. Donna attended the open house at the Bank on Friday.

Pat Brusseau and Vickie Anderson went to Hastings and Grand Island for shopping on Wednesday.

Bobby and Kristina Lowery and boys were Friday night visitors of Pat Brusseau and Dick Lowery to play cards.

On Sunday, Cloma Corman, Craig Lowery, Vickie Anderson, Mike Blaine and his dad, Dean, were at the home of Pat, along with Dick for refreshments. Cloma remained for supper.

Donna Gillan joined others for lunch in Hardy on Sunday.

Phyllis Schmitt attended the chicken pot pie dinner at the Catholic Church in Hebron on Sunday, then visited the Jerry Schmitt family.

Thayer Central Community School Board of Education March 30, 2014

The special meeting of the Board of Education to discuss facility improvements was called to order by President Tom Tipton on Sunday, March 30, 2014, at 3:00 p.m. at the high school pursuant to law and notice posted at the school, Hebron and Chester, Nebraska, post offices, the State Bank of Chester and the Thayer County Bank. All proceedings hereafter shown were taken while convened meeting was open to the public. Present on roll call: Prellwitz, Tipton, Casey, Craig, Hintz and Mumm. Also present: Supt. Drew Harris and many visitors.

President Tipton recognized the Open Meeting Act.

The following motions were made, seconded and passed:

1. Opened meeting at 3:00 p.m.
2. Approved agenda as presented.

Discussion was held concerning facility improvements.

Meeting adjourned at 4:58 p.m.
