Nebraska Pioneer Farm Families

Members of the Joe Hergott Nebraska Pioneer Farm Family are (left to right) Joe and Beverly Hergott, Jarod, son of Audra and Joe Hergott Jr., Alan and Deb Kenning, Libby, daughter of Audra and Joe Jr.

Hergott farm purchased in 1908

The first 80 acres of the Joe Hergott Farm on the west side of the Village of Gilead were purchased by Joseph Hergott Jr., in 1908.

In 1910, Hergott bought the west adjoining 80 acres, giving him 160 acres, in the SW 1/4 of 10-2-1.

After purchasing the additional 80, Hergott began putting up buildings. He and his friends erected a house, barn, chicken house, corn crib and several outbuildings.

In about 1914, an additional adjoining 80 acres to the south were purchased.

Hergott lived there until he passed in 1964.

In 1968, Mrs. Joe Hergott (Matilda Rauner), sold the 240 acres to her youngest son, Joe G. Hergott and wife, Beverly (Darling).

Along with a family of seven children, he lived there until his retirement in 1998.

At that time, the farm was sold to Joe "Joey" G. Hergott, Jr., who is the current owner and resident.

Pioneer awards recognize families

The Aksarben Foundation, along with Nebraska Farm Bureau and the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers, announced 138 honorees for the 2018 Nebraska Pioneer Farm and Nebraska Heritage Farm Awards.

The awards recognize Nebraska farm families who have consecutively held ownership of land in the same family for at least 100 years (Pioneer) or 150 years (Heritage).

Each honoree receives an engraved plaque and gatepost marker as permanent recognition of this milestone.

Meritorious Service

4-H awards David Bruning

The 4-H Council recognized David Bruning for his strong support of the 4-H program with the 2018 Meritorious Award. Bruning continues to make a difference in the lives of many youth in Thayer County. Every year, he supports the 4-H trophies and personally chooses the trophies that mean something to him. The 4-H Council thanks Bruning for advocating for 4-H, above and beyond the call of duty. Bruning was presented with the award on the first night of the fair in the Grandstands.

Schoolhouse once stood on farm

By Kurk Joachim

Our great-grandparents, Peter and Dorothea Joachim, were the first Joachims to own the farm, as I understand it.

Grandparents, John and Josephine Joachim bought the farm after grandfather, John, served in World War I.

Our parents, Donovan and Ruth Joachim, bought the farm from our grandparents in 1977.

It is presently farmed by Kevin and Colleen Joachim.

The farm is bordered on the south side by the Union Pacific Railroad tracks between Belvidere and Alexandria.

When our parents bought the farm, they put up a center pivot irrigation system, which was upgraded to a newer system with a swing-arm.

In the southeast corner of the farm, County Dist. No. 6 schoolhouse was built.

The school stood for many years until a wind storm toppled it.

Through the years, the farm has seen its share of flooding from the Big Sandy River and its branches.

We hope to continue the legacy that our great-grandparents started.

4-H Seniors Recognized

4-H Senior members

Amanda Schultz, Ethan Meerkatz and Skylar Knigge are three of the 4-H seniors recognized this year. Not pictured are senior members, MacKenzie J alas, Tyra Mohrmann and Garrett Schardt.

The 2018 4-H seniors were recognized by 4-H council president, Jon Mohrmann, who presented plaques to the graduated senior, long time members. They are:

Skylar Knigge — Skylar is the daughter of Donovan and Barbara Knigge of Davenport.

She graduated from Bruning-Davenport High School and will be attending Chadron State College, majoring in human biology and minoring in music, with the overall goal of becoming a pediatrician.

Her favorite 4-H projects are showing pigs, sewing and baking. Skylar has been a 4-H member for 10 years and belongs to the Circle D club.

Mackenzie J alas — MacKenzie is the daughter of Dee J alas and Darin J alas of Deshler.

Mackenzie graduated from Deshler High School and is planning on attending Southeast Community College in Hebron, then Lincoln. She will be studying early elementary education.

Her favorite 4-H projects have been working with horses and sheep. Mackenzie has been a 4-Her for 11 years and belongs to the Willing Hands club.

Ethan Meerkatz — is the son of Amanda and Kevin Ostdiek and Justin Jarchow of Superior.

Ethan graduated from Deshler High School and is attending SCC in Milford, majoring in diesel mechanics.

His favorite 4-H project has been photography because it allows him to capture beautiful sights.

Ethan has been a 4-H member for 10 years and belongs to the Outlaws club.

Tyra Mohrmann — Tyra is the daughter of Jon and Delinda Mohrmann of Deshler.

Tyra graduated from Deshler High School and is attending the University of Wyoming to earn a concurrent major in criminal justice and natural resources, with a minor in outdoor leadership, as well as minoring in the honors program.

Her favorite 4-H projects were horse, photography and art. She has been a 4-H member for 10 years and belongs to the Willing Hands club.

Garrett Schardt — is the son of Nathan and Robin Schardt, of Davenport.

Garrett graduated from Bruning-Davenport High School and will be attending Concordia University

Mark Hintz, Farm Products superintendent:

"The agricultural products display of the Thayer Co. Fair showcased a nice display of clean grains.

"A new exhibit this year were purple potatoes and we had a great selection of peppers this year with the fair moved back a few weeks.

"We would like to contribute to Lori Koch, Alexandria with wild flowers. Karen Vorderstrasse, Deshler, was awarded the Outstanding Plant rosette. In the Junior Division, exhibitor, Chloe Hintz, won outstanding junior entry with a variety of floral arrangements."

"Thanks to all who entered this division with their beautiful and colorful entries."

Dillon Schardt

tinue to encourage anybody in the county to bring products, even if it is only a couple entries. A lot of people come to the fair to help with something, so why not bring along some produce they are proud of growing, and would like to share with everyone who attends the fair, especially for the people who may have relatives living within the county, and may not get to experience farm products up close and personal.

"This year we had more junior exhibitors in the open class than we have over the last couple of years. I would like to encourage more people to take the time to

Beverly Elting, superintendent of the Baked Goods Department said she would like to thank the boys, girls, men and ladies for bringing cakes, pies, cookies, candy, breads and rolls to the Thayer County Fair.

She looks forward to seeing everyone again next year.

Sandra Kerns, of Deshler, received the Outstanding Exhibitor rosette. She entered a variety of muffins, and breads.

Chloe Fangmeyer, who will be a fourth grader at Deshler, was the Junior Outstanding Exhibitor. She entered cleverly decorated ladies high heel shoes cup-
