Belvidere

By Linda Hudson

For the last time this season Nebraska fans watched their volleyball team on the biggest stage they could be. They played Florida for the right to be the very best volleyball team in the nation. And they didn't disappoint us.

Their coach, John Cook, is a true leader. He went to a college in California and he was actually hired to be a football or basketball coach. When he got the job, he learned that he would be coaching something more than volleyball. In those days the job description wasn't always quite what you thought. It was like, well, we really need this and so you do what you have to do to get the job. But now we all know what a great volleyball coach Nebraska has!

Cook believes you live by example. Tells his girls, "Always be first class all the way!" And that they were! It would have been interesting to know just how many watched the game last Saturday night. Chances are that if you didn't watch it on screen, you were watching it in person in Kansas City and also maybe saying "hi" to your neighbor at the same time. It is now known that neighbors living in the same neighborhood were also surprised to see each other. Believe now that Thayer County was well represented!

When John Cook spoke at the Devaney Center after coming home Sunday morning, he said, "this was so good for Nebraska...Nebraska really needed this!" Ronnie Green, Chancellor of UN, also said, "With each other, for each other...this team has really blessed this state and we cannot thank you enough!"

Attending the NCAA volleyball tournament was Russ and Bonnie Priefert and Connie Uden and her son. Also visiting their son, Greg and family, was Ken and Jeanette Else. Their daughter, Mary, and husband from Colorado, were also in Kansas City. And I know a WHOLE bunch of other people that I don't know about being there. Anyway it all added up to over 12,000 fans or more making it seem like a home game.

An observation that I have is that Nebraska and Penn State were the top two teams and actually the championship game was played on Thursday night. Five sets took almost three hours. Don't know about the team, but the fans sitting at home watching the game on TV were exhausted. What a battle it was! After Penn State saw Florida play for the Championship, they probably thought so too. Got a feeling the committee might have known this. They just didn't want the two final teams both be from the Big Ten conference!

The days are counting down! Soon Christmas vacation will be here and all the kids will get a break from the winter activities. But watch out, the school activities will come back with vengeance at the beginning of the new year.

The United Church of Christ will be holding Christmas Eve services on Dec. 24th at 5 p.m. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

Our Community was deeply saddened this week with the death of Ruth Hobbs. Ruth was a Bunting and her parents were long time residents of the Belvidere area, George and Engel Bunting. Jane Dodes, a teacher, at Thayer Central is also a daughter.

Ruth was such a community minded person. She always worked very hard in being a volunteer. She belonged to the Belvidere Woman's Club for many years and will indeed be missed. Her brother was the late Dr. Louis Bunting.

An update on the health status of Wilma Bonilla's grandson from last week. He has regained some speech and probably be going to a place of rehabilitation.

Leadership training...

Nineteen county officials from 14 counties received Certificates of Achievement for their participation in the Nebraska Association County Officials (NACO) Institute of Excellence. The Institute of Excellence is collaboration between NACO and the University of Nebraska. It provides leadership development for elected, appointed county officials and tangential officials. The officials were honored during a presentation at NACO's annual conference in Kearney, Wednesday, December 13th. Thayer County Commissioner, Rick Dageforde was awarded a certificate by Nebraska Extension District Director, Dr. Kelly Bruns and NACO President and Holt County Commissioner, William Tielke.

Community cafe project...

Members of the Chesterfest Organizing Committee met with Janny Crotty of the Nebraska Community Foundation. She is the Affiliated Fund Development Coordinator and was meeting with the group to establish a new account for the 'community cafe' project. She was very impressed with what Chester had to offer and what is planned. Also present was Jaye Moeller of Byron who spoke of his town's experiences with fundraising. The group in Chester is excited to work toward this important project for the community. Present at the meeting (L-R in photo) were Jaye Moeller, Mike Tipton, Janny Crotty, Pat Snyder, Adam Tipton and Tom Tipton. Also in attendance was Art Whitton (taking photo) and Alex Tipton who left for the Chester VFD meeting.

of Donelda's Danish heritage.

Have been thinking it would be fun to go somewhere on a train. Now this terrible accident in Washington State. Guess I will stick with my one and only train ride on the Motor Train that used to come through Belvidere. When I was young I was really brave and rode the Motor all the way to Fairbury. Thought that was a big deal!

Christmas greetings to all of you. Thankful that you read this writing. It is indeed heartwarming to go any place in the neighborhood and know and enjoy my friends!

Six Titan wrestlers medal

The Thayer Central wrestlers were in their third week of competition as they sent three junior Titans to Ravenna and eight to Auburn.

The eight-man team finished strong with six medalists - Keegan Casey, Damian Stewart, Jackson Feulner, Dominic Stewart, Cooper Casey and Jarod Hergott. In Ravenna, Titans, Buchanan Tietjen, Leyton Mumm and Dahran Cast all placed third.

Coach Josh Bowers said the eight-man team started strong in the first round, going 3-1. In the second round, the wrestlers slipped to 2-6.

"We didn't stay down long," Bowers said because they didn't have much time to practice in preparation for the Sutton varsity meet Dec. 19.

Casey (126 pounds) scored 24 points for the team and earned first place. He took Bellevue West down in 1:07; Conestoga in 33 seconds; and Auburn in 3:39. Stewart (132) finished third, adding 16 points. He had his first pin in the quarterfinal against Falls City in 1:35. Stewart won the consolation semifinal by a fall over Fairbury in 2:50 and the third place match against Bellevue West for a 1:57 fall. The semifinal was won by a 16-9 decision against opponent, Abraham Lincoln, in Stewart's favor.

Feulner (152) placed third for a total of 10 team points. He pinned a Falls City wrestler in 1:46, then won the third place match over Auburn by a 3-2 decision. He lost the semifinal round to Norris by a fall in 1:50.

Dominic Stewart (138) scored 10 points and medaled for fourth place. He took Auburn down in 1:34, but fell to Conestoga in the semifinal. In the consolation semi, Dominic Stewart picked up a 16-4 major decision against Bellevue West. In the third place match, Dominic Stewart fell to Abraham Lincoln in 2:23.

Cooper Casey (106) was also fourth, scoring five points. He fell to Auburn in 1:11 in the semifinal. For the consolation semi, Cooper Casey won a 6-2 decision over Abraham Lincoln, but in the third place match, Cooper Casey fell in 22 seconds to Conestoga.

Hergott (145) contributed five points to the team and placed fourth. He lost to a 14-4 major decision in Norris's favor, but won a 4-0 decision against Bellevue West. The third place match went to Bellevue West for a 2:21 fall.

Also competing was Logan Luehring (195) for three points and Andrew Engle (160) for one.

For the junior varsity invitational, Tietjen (novice 138) gave nine points to the team and won his third place round against Gibbon in 1:55. Mumm (novice 145) also chipped in nine points and won his third place round in 1:50 against Kearney.

Cast (novice 182) placed third, but did not earn points. He competed with Broken Bow and Burwell.

Deshler boys take Franklin

Coach Josh Nash was pleased with the intensity shown by the Deshler Dragons while playing Franklin on the home court Dec. 15.

The boys held Franklin from the basket, allowing just 10 points to Deshler's 60.

"All of these conference games are important and it's great anytime you can get a win at home," Nash said. "I was pleased with our intensity and poise, especially at the start of the game and right after the half."

Grant Hansen scored a whopping 25 points for the team.

"It's good to get back on track heading into the break with a tough holiday tournament coming up," Nash said.

Deshler will travel to Humboldt for the Dec. 29-30 tournament. Both the boys' and girls' teams will face Pawnee City first.

Results from the Franklin game are as follows:

Points — Grant Hansen, 25; Peyton Dubbert, 8; Mason Roth, 7; Derrick Buescher, 5; Trenton Buescher, 4; Adam Roth, 4; Brady

Fangmeyer, 3; Hutch Finke, 2; Will LeFave, 2.

Rebounds — D. Buescher, 4; Hansen, 4; M. Roth, 4; LeFave, 3; T. Buescher, 2; Dubbert, Fangmeyer and Daniel Petersen, 1 each; Steals — Dubbert, 3; Hansen, 3; M. Roth, A. Roth, Cayden Loomis, Finke, D. Buescher, T. Buescher, 1 each;

Assists — M. Roth, Fangmeyer and Finke, 2 each; Petersen, 1;

Free Throws — Hansen, 2; D. Buescher, 1; Fangmeyer, 1.

Stephanie Meyer scrapped for a loose ball in the Heartland gym Dec. 15. Heartland won the game, 60-35.

Lady Dragons sweep week

The Deshler Lady Dragons defeated the undefeated Franklin team in a 47-40 game Dec. 15.

"With Franklin coming in undefeated, we knew we'd have a tough task at hand," Coach Andy Brenn said. "But the girls battled hard all night and made some crucial runs that resulted in us getting a win."

Both varsity and junior varsity were victorious.

"There are always going to be things that we need to keep working on, but both teams did a great job of being aggressive against the Lady Flyers," Brenn said.

High school sports will now enter the Nebraska School Activities Association moratorium until the Holiday Tournament in Humboldt Dec. 29-30.

Brenn said the moratorium will give the girls a healthy rest.

Results from the game are as follows:

Points — Sydney Roth, 16; Tori Schoof, 9; Kayla Oakman, 8; Jaden Siegle, 8; Leah Schmidt, 4; Trinity Schardt, 2;

Rebounds — Roth, 11; Siegle, 9; Schmidt, 4; Schardt, 4; Schoof, 3; Oakman, 1;

Steals — Siegle, 4; Roth, 2; Schoof, 2;

Assists — Schoof, 4; Oakman, 3; Roth, 1; Siegle, 1;

Free Throws — Schoof, 4; Oakman, 4; Roth, 3.

Eagle ladies win two on road

The Bruning-Davenport/Shickley Lady Eagles continued their press on the floor as they took on Sutton Dec. 12 and Cross County Dec. 15. The Eagles downed the Fillies 58-42 and Cross County, 42-21. Both games were away. Against Sutton, BDS took a 14-3 lead in the first quarter.

Defensive pressure on Sutton allowed for turnovers.

"We capitalized on those turnovers," Coach Shana Gerberding said. Sutton lost the ball to BDS 28 times and 18 of the 28 came in the first half. The Eagles made 22 points from the turnovers.

At the half, the ladies were up 30-16.

It didn't stop Sutton from attempting drives at the basket in the third quarter, and Gerberding said the BDS defense could have done more overall.

"We have to continue to work every defensive possession on keeping them out of the paint," she said.

Lexi Kadel led the scoring with 17 points. Nicole Swartzendruber and Regan Alfs contributed 10 points each. Jadyne Kleinschmidt's steals added up to nine. Kadel had six.

The Eagles played a smothering defense in the Cross County game, depriving their opponents offensively.

Going into the half, the Eagle lead was strong at 26-9. In the third quarter, Cross County was held to one point.

Making baskets for the Eagles was Alfs with 10 points; Swartzendruber, Megan Grote and TaraLee Hudson with six points each; and Jadyne Kleinschmidt and Macy Kamler chipping in five points a piece.

The Lady Eagles will face Tekamaha-Herman for the Nebraska Wesleyan Holiday Tournament Dec. 28.

Gabe Haase dribbles the ball away from Heartland in an energized game. Coach Dan Kayser said the team is showing signs of improvement and persistence. The Titans lost the game, 75-31.

Eagles prepare for tourney

The Eagle boys faced a physical and athletic Sutton on the road Dec. 12. Sutton took advantage of its physical abilities early in the game and gained an 11-point lead in the half, subsequently finishing the game with a 57-54 win.

Even as Sutton led 50-39, the Eagles kept fighting and came within three points of the final score, but not before setting up a shot to tie the game as the clock ticked down.

With four seconds to go, the shot rimmed out and Eagles took their first loss of the season.

"We knew we were going to have a lot different look physically and athletically from Sutton that we hadn't seen yet this year and win or lose, we would take a lot out of this game," Coach Greg Schroedersaid. "Sutton has a real nice team and they gave us a lot of fits, particularly inside the lane, where our posts were held to season minimums."

Schroeder added he was proud of the fight.

Garrett Schardt found the touch on some shots and knocked down 16 points for the Eagles. Caden Norder had the eye for 20 points. John Christensen made 10; Logan Schroeder, 3; Anthony Beavers and Karson Dickson, 2 each; and Holden Stengel, 1.

The Dec. 15 game with Cross County and the fifth straight game on the road for BDS saw the Eagles starting well with a 10-3 lead in the first quarter and a lead by just three points into the half at 17-14.

"We had a good start to the game, which we anticipated, then kind of fell apart on about everything we thought we'd be able to get accomplished," Schroeder said. "We didn't assert ourselves to go out and win a game."

It was a tough loss coming off the Sutton game.

Schroeder said the upcoming break before the holiday tournament at Wesleyan University in Lincoln Dec. 28-30 might be good.

"It may be a good time for a break as our guys seem like they need a recharge after a long football season and getting right into basketball," he said. "Hopefully, it will do us some good."

Stengel was at the basket for 14 points. Beavers made 6; Norder, 5; Schardt, 5; Christensen, 4; and Dickson, 1.

Titans place in conference teams

Receiving recognition for the volleyball season are Lady Titans, Katelyn Richardson, Sydney Havel, Maggie Harris, Emily Welch and Jena Cottam. Welch made the 4th team and was a leader in stats, according to the Hastings Tribune. Harris and Cottam received Honorable Mention. The Lincoln Journal Star named Welch, Harris and Cottam as Honorable Mentions in Class C2, as did the Omaha World Herald. Welch made the first team, Harris the second and Cottam, the third team in the Southern Nebraska Conference. Havel made Honorable Mention. Richardson and Harris made Academic All-State.

came. They had a heart for him. Time was of essence as Bob was critically ill.

Teresa's heart never missed a beat.

She was a fun loving person and was always willing to help someone. How happy she would be to know how much life she had given back to Bob.

Bob didn't know how he could ever thank the family for giving him another chance at life.

The Prieferts have received letters, thanking them for the priceless donation from several recipients. Bonnie made sure she answered the letters. It was important to her to know who had benefitted.

This fall, the letter came from Bob asking if he could meet the family. The Prieferts were elated.

The Nebraska Recovery program monitors communication between families. Staff reads the letters before they are sent to recipients.

On Oct. 5, Russ and Bonnie traveled to Omaha. They caught up with their daughter, Jennifer, and met Bob and his wife at the Nebraska Organ Recovery site.

It was an exciting moment as they greeted each other and they were more excited to hear Teresa's heart beat. It was a difficult time for the recipient, as Bob had all kinds of emotions. He felt guilty and knew of the sacrifice that gave him new life.

Russ and Bonnie assured him this wasn't the way he should be, although much of Bob's time in Omaha was spent crying for various reasons.

He was very thankful. He mentioned that in Ohio the meeting probably wouldn't have happened because of the different rules they have about meeting the donor's family.

The only thing they told him was Teresa was such a Husker fan and asked if he would yell "Go Big Red" on Saturday afternoons come next fall.

He smiled and said, "I'm a Penn State fan, but I will certainly do that for all the folks in Nebraska!"

The Prieferts also learned Teresa had several organs, bones and tissue harvested for the use of making someone else's life worth living.

They are awaiting a letter from the person who received the lungs. They have been contacted by the recipient to meet them.

The Prieferts felt they had been blessed and rewarded from this man in Ohio named Bob who wanted to make sure they were thanked.

On the day they met Bob, it had been exactly 32 months since his transplant.

The Prieferts learned the good fortune was theirs because the donor and recipient families don't always get to meet.

In the beginning, they weren't sure how much use the center would see. But, over 400 memberships have been sold.

"For such a small community, I think that's great," Bongers said. "We have 60 to 100 people of all ages coming through the door every day."

The $6.9 million wellness center was constructed as a result of a gift from Hebron native, Glenn Korff.

An endowment under Kenneth and Glenn Korff established for Hebron was unrestricted and could be used for a variety of community projects, such as the park and economic development.

Because the gift is endowed, the principal remains intact. Only a portion of investment earnings is used for grants. The endowment continues to grow in order it may give back for generations of community improvements.

Two aquatic exercises are on the schedule for the Korff Fitness and Wellness Center's one year anniversary Dec. 21. Participants are invited to learn how low impact exercises in the water are designed and are beneficial for all fitness levels.

Davenport ALA #335

The December 4th meeting of the Davenport American Legion Auxiliary Post 335 was called to order by President Sharon Littrel. The members began the meeting by reciting the Pledge to the Flag, the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, reciting the Auxiliary Preamble, and observing a moment of silence in honor of our veterans and P.O.W.'s.

The minutes of the November meeting were read and approved. Roll call was taken and showed eight members present. The treasurer's report was read and approved.

Committee reports then followed. Sharon delivered the rolls for American Education week to the staff. Information has also been given to the teachers about the essay contest. The theme for this year's contest is "What Can I do to Promote Patriotism in my School or Community?"

Deb Albers reported that she presented her Flag Etiquette program to 23 second and third graders for Veterans Day. She was also joined by Dennis Falmer who told about his experiences in Vietnam. Three cub scouts were also able to earn their Flag badge that day. Deb also attended County Government Day on November 8 at the Thayer County Courthouse. She reported that it was well attended and that the students enjoyed the day.

Deb Albers will be the speaker for the Memorial Day program. She is speaking about our "Home Town Veterans." She is still looking for information from members, veterans, and the community about our local service men and woman. Please contact her with these amazing stories of our own veterans and their service.

Old Business: The Auxiliary hosted a Soup Supper on Dec. 1. The event went very well and was well attended with little soup and only four pieces of pie left. The Auxiliary would like to thank everyone who donated toward the event to make it a success.

New Business: Membership dues were increased to reflect increases at the National Level. Dues were increased to $25 for membership with Junior dues at $5.

Of interest, Deb has an interesting article in the current edition of the Nebraska American Auxiliary - check it out!

It was mentioned that Chris Pevelka is currently deployed at an unknown location in the desert and also Pastor Flynn is on a ship off of the coast in the Middle East area. It was suggested that everyone bring an item to our January meeting that could be sent to these servicemen in a care package from "home."

Upcoming dates of importance were noted: Mid-Year Conference will be January 12-14; next meeting will be January 8 at 7:30 with a Legislative Report.

Following the regular meeting the members enjoyed a short Christmas program from Zola and Christmas cookies and coffee.

Bruning ALA #166 meets

The Durham-Mammen American Legion Auxiliary, Unit #166, Bruning, met for their Christmas meeting at our local cafe on Monday, December 11, 2017, at noon. There were seven members present.

Hostesses Beverly Vaught and Pat Headrick decorated the table in a Christmas theme with each member receiving a gift bag of Christmas cookies which included a lump of coal and a Christmas ornament.

After enjoying our meal together, President Janelle Bruning conducted a short business meeting. She announced that our national dues will increase by $3 in 2019. A motion was made and seconded that we raise our dues by $3 in 2019. Motion carried. The junior member dues will remain the same as they are at the present time.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that we purchase the Country Living magazine and the Nebraska Life magazine to go to the local library.

We designated our Christmas offering to be given to the Cattlemen's Ball which will be held in Thayer County this summer.

We, along with the Carleton Auxiliary members, will serve a soup supper on January 16th during the BDS basketball game which will be held on Bruning.

A short program included remembering ladies who were members of our auxiliary in the past and a short reading entitled, "Waiting for the Gift of Christmas." We thank our hostesses for making this a special day for us.

Our next meeting will be held on February 12, 2018. Submitted by Sue Hinrichs, Secretary
