will continue to work to get things turned around," Cottam said.

On Jan. 27, the Titans faced the No. 3 rated Centennial Broncos.

Centennial is 15-1 on the season. The Titans got off to a slow start and eventually lost 74-36 to the highly ranked Broncos.

"We got behind 44-14 at half and never really challenged them," Cottam said. "Centennial is probably the best team in our conference and the best team on our schedule."

Leading scorer for the Titans was Madsen with 10; Fuglestad tallied nine points; Mumm eight; Fangmeier, Hergott, Paul Bosco and Mumford chipped in two points each and Zach Koss rounded out the scoring with one point.

On Saturday night, the boys played David City and lost 57-45 in overtime.

"We got behind by as many as 10 points and fought back to tie the game on a 28-footer by Mumm and send the game into overtime, but unfortunately, we only scored two points in overtime," Cottam said. "I love how our guys competed until the end in this one."

The Titans didn't score in the third quarter.

"I was happy how we got after them in the fourth to be able to tie the game," Cottam said.

Leading scorers were Mumm and Madsen with 16 points each. Madsen also contributed a career high 11 rebounds on the night. Mumm had five rebounds.

Rounding out the stat sheet was Fuglestad with two points, and eight assists.

Also contributing for the Titans were Taylor Koss with two points; Fangmeier, two points, four rebounds; Zach Koss, two points; Hergott, two points; and Mumford with three points.

The Titans were scheduled in David City Jan. 30 to begin the Southern Nebraska Conference Tournament.

The Titans are the No. 9 seed with a 3-13 record on the season.

Dragons meet contenders on court

Boys basketball coach, Josh Nash, said Kenesaw handed the Dragons a defensive game Jan. 26.

Kenesaw final tally was 48 points to Deshler's 38.

"We have our work cut out for us," he said about possibly facing Kenesaw in a second match-up.

In points, Grant Hansen was the sole player in double digits with 13 points. Mason Roth followed with nine. Peyton Dubbert made eight points, as did Derrick Buescher.

From the perimeter, Roth had three successful baskets and Hansen, one.

Dubbert shot four baskets from the line. Hansen was in for two baskets.

The team had 12 rebounds. Hansen pulled down five and Roth, three. Several players each nabbed a ball on the defensive side.

Hansen led in assists with three.

Superior proved to be another contender for the Dragon boys in a Jan. 24 game that resulted in a three-point deficit with Superior on top at 48-45.

In double figures was Hansen with 15 points; Dubbert, 12; and Roth, 10. Only Dubbert and Roth scored via 3-point baskets with one each. The team also made 11 points from the line.

"Superior is always a tough match-up, and they were really ready to play right from the tip," Nash said. "I was impressed with their execution, especially in the fourth quarter. Coach Chadwell really had his guys ready to roll and we did not respond consistently."

Superior held the Dragons to 11 points in the fourth quarter.

In rebounds, it was Dubbert with eight. Four players, Hansen, Roth, Hutch Finke and Buescher, each pulled four down.

The team counted two steals from Roth and Brady Fangmeyer and three each from Dubbert and Roth with two from Finke. Ryan Brandt and Buescher each had one assist.

Nash said the game gave the Dragons an opportunity to learn and improve in preparation for the conference tournament.

Eagles runners-up in tourney

As the BDS Lady Eagles defeated No. 1 seed Exeter-Milligan 30-26, they faced Hampton for the championship in the Crossroads Conference Tournament last week. The Eagles also battled Hampton last year in the tournament.

The Eagle press caused Hampton to turn the ball over seven times in the first quarter.

"In a game like this, every possession is so important, you can't afford to lose your focus because a good team like Hampton will make you pay," Coach Shana Gerberding said.

Offensively, the Eagles struggled on shooting and went 26 percent inside the arc.

The Eagle defense, however, kept them in the game.

"The CRC is a very tough conference to play in," Gerberding said.

The Eagles ended in the runners-up position after a 54-48 loss to Hampton.

The girls squeaked by on the win against the Timberwolves in their third game with Exeter-Milligan during the month of January.

They jumped out to an 8-2 advantage, but battled for an offensive rhythm as did Exeter-Milligan.

The Timberwolves pulled within two points by the end of third quarter shooting, scoring 11 while holding the Eagles to six points. Foul trouble kept the door open for the Timberwolves.

Carley Elznic's 3-point basket late in the fourth quarter and two free throws by Lexi Kadel held Exeter-Milligan off.

After defeating High Plains to start the tournament, the Eagles took on Dorchester. Taking control of the game from the tipoff, the Eagles continued their press and forced turnovers.

The girls kept up their momentum, finishing with the win, 57-31.

Regan Alfs scored 10 of her 12 points in the first half.

"We had the advantage inside and our posts did a good job of getting position, so the guards could get them the ball," Gerberding said.

Lady Dragons play Superior

The Deshler Lady Dragons handed Kenesaw a 43-27 loss Jan. 26. Scoring in double digits was Sydney Roth with 16 points and Tori Schoof, who made 14 points. Schoof's points included four, 3-point goals. Roth had two successful shots from the perimeter.

Five points were made from the line by Braelyn Isernhagen, Kayla Oakman and Roth.

In rebounds, Roth led with nine. Jaden Siegle had seven; Isernhagen, six; Schoof, five; and Oakman, three.

Roth had five steals, Isernhagen and Siegle, four and Schoof, three. Schoof also had five assists.

Two days prior, the Lady Dragons went into a game against Superior, knowing it would be a battle.

"We knew this was going to be a very tough game going in because of the Wildcats' size advantage," Coach Andy Brenn said. "The girls were up for the challenge and did a nice job of getting outrebounded by four."

The girls pushed forward despite losing the first half.

"We challenged the team at halftime and they responded by winning the second half," Brenn said.

The final score was 64-45, Superior.

Roth had 23 points and three rebounds on the game. She made three, 3-point baskets and 12 free throws. It was Siegle who led with rebounds with 10.

Additional contributions in points came from Schoof, five; Oakman, four; Cassady Mundhenke, four; and Siegle, four.

Schoof had seven rebounds and Isernhagen, Elle Baker and Oakman had three each. Roth had four steals and Schoof, three.

"Although we lost the game, we still can see a lot of positives from what we did," Brenn said.

Jana reported that Hebron was picked as one of the forty (40) stops for the Children's Museum. We can pick our dates that they will set up sometime between April and September 2017. Jana reported that maybe we could coordinate a time that we have activities at the ballfields and put it down in that area.

Jana also reported that she had contacted the state to see if we could get more signs showing Hebron. Jana reported that the blue signs come from Nebraska Logo's who works with the State, it is a 6-15-month process. These signs will show gas, lodging, food, attraction, camping. They are $2400.00 annual rent from names/businesses on sign. Will be discussing this with the chamber members and businesses to see if any interest.

Community Surveys have been a huge success. We have had 630 people return the surveys. Jana reported had some good and bad comments, but that is expected.

Community/City Cook-off will be held on March 3, 2017 and Girl Scout Troop #904 will be helping with this. Ideas this year were to make something with a Nebraska ingredient. More to come on this.

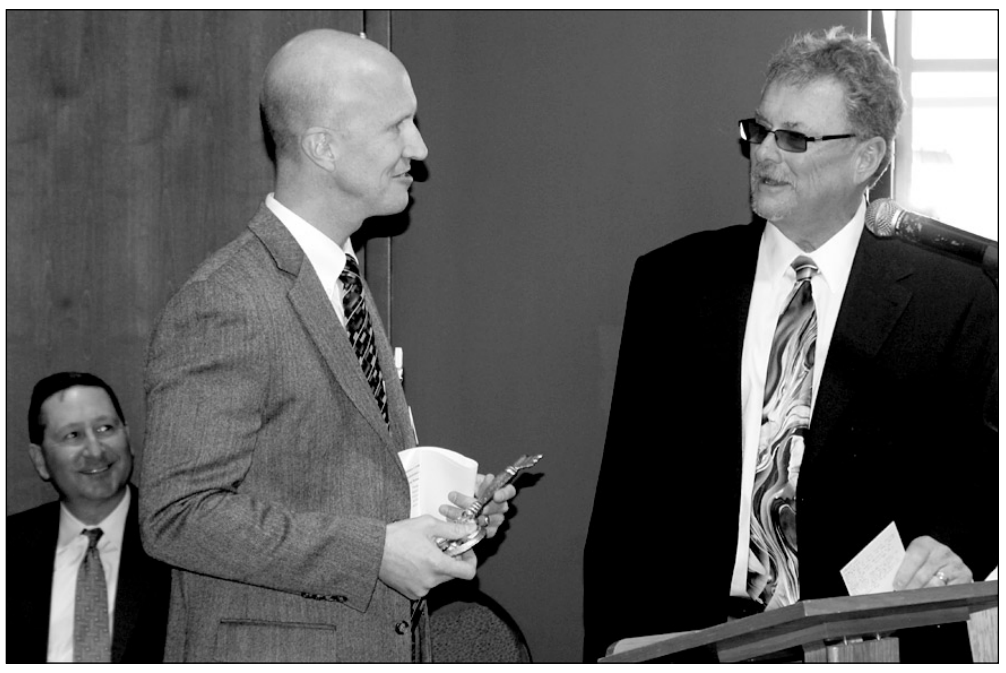
Korff center promotes well being

The Korff Fitness and Wellness Center was dedicated Sunday. The center was built from a $6.9 million gift from Glenn Korff and recently began accepting clients for its state-of-the-art facility.

Following the dedication ceremony, tours of the center were given. Above, tour participants looked up to a big screen after information was entered on a kiosk in the aerobics room. Users of the kiosk will be able to key in exercise programs they want to include in their workout. Below, the public was introduced to the workout area next to the aerobics room. All equipment is located inside a circular walking track.



Thayer County Commissioner (right) presented a key to Thayer County Health Services CEO David Burd. Hospital board president, Loren Wiedel (left) also spoke at the dedication.

Speech team faces challenge in Osceola

The Thayer Central Speech team saw a challenge at a meet in Osceloa Jan. 28.

Osceola's 20th annual invite signified a complete month of competition for the Titan Talkers.

The Talkers, with 11 total entries, placed in three programs at the event.

Leading them was Senior Ashley Harms, who earned second place in Extemporaneous Speaking.

The Duet team of Senior Collin Fink and Sophomore Maggie Harris placed fourth. Fink added his own individual medal to the mix, placing seventh in Persuasive.

"We really enjoy going to the Osceola Meet every year as it's a lot of competition we don't get to see all the time," Coach Justin Bomar said. "We had good participation this week and we're just looking to get better for the next one."
