Titans 1-1 over weekend

The Thayer Central Boys basketball team continued their extended streak of road games this past weekend by traveling to Superior Jan. 6. The Titans came away with a hard fought 40-34 victory against a scrappy Wildcat team.

The Titans were led in scoring by Senior Connor Mumm with a game high 22 points.

"Connor pretty much put the team on his shoulders and would not allow us to lose this game," Titan Coach Kent Cottam said. "We were playing without Senior Evan Fuglestad who suffered a severe ankle injury in practice during the week."

The team is hoping Fuglestad will be back in the lineup soon, but the severity of his injury is unknown.

"I'm confident our younger guys can step up for us and increase their roles on the team," Cottam said.

Mumm played an excellent all-around game and was really a leader, Cottam said.

Rounding out the scoring for Thayer Central was Max Madsen with eight, Keith Hergott with six and Seth Mumford with four points.

Aubrey Fangmeier led the team with 10 rebounds and Mumm followed with nine rebounds and three assists.

The Titans traveled to Deshler the following evening to play the No. 5 rated in Class D-1 Dragons.

The Dragons counted on some hot shooting to cruise to a 52-31 victory over the Titans.

Mumm led the scoring with 18 points, Madsen with seven and Taylor Koss and Keith Hergott both chipped in three.

"Deshler pretty much shot us out of the gym in the first half with their 3-point shooting. I think they made eight 3's in the first half and jumped out to a 20-point lead and we were never able to get back in the game," Cottam said.

"We will need to get back to work in practice and improve everyday as we get into the heart of our conference schedule in January. We have a lot of basketball ahead of us and the kids are really committed to trying to make a run here at the middle and end of our season."

Titan Seth Mumford held the ball away from Dragon Daniel Petersen.

Connor Mumm made a quick pass between Deshler's Peyton Dubbert and Hutch Finke. Mumm made 18 points for the game.

Peyton Dubbert goes up for a shot. He made 16 points for the team, including four, 3-point baskets.

Deshler's Derrick Buescher moved for the inside as he was closely guarded by a Titan.

Dragons sweep weekend games

The Deshler Dragons battled the boards against the Thayer Central Titans and hit shots early.

"That helped give us some momentum," Coach Josh Nash said.

At the same time, Nash said they were concerned because the Titans had defeated Superior the night before.

"We expected them to have some confidence. Our guys knew we couldn't let Connor (Mumm) get going and give them a spark," Nash said.

The final score was 52-31, Deshler.

"As usual, it was a great environment for kids from both teams and we appreciate all the people coming out to support the players," Nash added.

Topping out the scoring for Deshler was Mason Roth with 22 points, including six, 3-point baskets. Peyton Dubbert, who scored 16 points, had four successful 3-point shots.

Other shooters were Grant Hansen for eight points and Derrick Buescher made six.

In rebounds, Hansen had seven on the defense; Roth, five; Brady Fangmeyer, three; Buescher, two; and Dubbert, Daniel Petersen and Hutch Finke each had one. For the offense on rebounding, it was Buescher with four.

Roth stole the ball twice. Petersen and Buescher had one stolen ball each.

Dubbert and Finke each had four assists. Fangmeyer had three and Roth, two.

The Dragons also defeated Shelton, 67-30 Jan. 6. Their record as of Tuesday was 8-2.

Titans compete in David City

The Thayer Central wrestling team traveled to David City for the Aquinas Invitational Jan. 7. Results are as follows:

Scylar Roop (120) — DNP;

Quarterfinals — Wyatt Smydra (Norfolk Catholic) over Roop (Fall 3:29);

Consolation Round 1 - Scylar Roop received a bye;

Consolation Semis - Gage Musser (Hershey) over Roop (Dec 6-0).

Keegan Casey (126) First place;

Champ. Round 1 — Casey received a bye;

Quarterfinals — Casey over Chase Tate (Nebraska Christian) (Fall 3:06);

Semifinals — Casey (Thayer Central) over Patrick Powers (Broken Bow) (Dec 9-8);

First Place Match — Casey over Dawson Hogue (Conestoga) (MD 10-1).

Eagles go 2-2 on hardwood

Weekend games against Giltner and Nebraska Lutheran netted the Bruning Davenport Shickley boys two wins. They defeated the Giltner Hornets (6-2) 71-52 and the Nebraska Lutheran Knights (5-0), 50-47.

The game with the Hornets was close for three quarters. Early in the game, Giltner applied full court pressure and BDS recognized it, taking advantage with some easy points in the lane.

"We worked hard this last week on seeing the open man," Head Coach Fred Kluck said. "We got some really good looks early on because they trapped so hard in the back court, but as the game went along they adjusted and started to take that away."

The teams went into halftime with BDS holding a slim 36-32 lead.

As the second half got underway, the Eagles clamped down on the defensive end, which made it more difficult for Giltner to get into their press.

Caden Norder and Noel Gines attacked the lane, scoring 14 of the Eagles 18 third quarter points, giving BDS a little breathing room entering the fourth quarter up by 10 points.

From there, things started to open up as Anthony Beavers went 4-4 from the free throw line and Kale Kleinschmidt found Norder wide open in the corner for a 3-pointer and BDS pulled away for a comfortable win.

Leading the way in the scoring column was Norder with 25 points. Noel Gines had nine along with three assists. Beavers, Holden Stengel and Kleinschmidt each added eight with Kleinschmidt contributing a team high of 11 rebounds and seven assists. John Christensen had six, Garrett Schardt added five and Hunter Krehnke came off the bench to wrap up the scoring with two points.

The Eagles returned home to the Bruning court the next evening to face a conference newcomer in the undefeated Nebraska Lutheran Knights. The game was close throughout and a defensive stop at the buzzer allowed BDS to escape with a slim 50-47 victory.

Both teams were cautious early as NL took a 13-11 lead after one quarter of play.

By halftime, BDS had pulled in front and led 25-23.

"We thought we kind of had some things figured out," Kluck said. "We were probably a little tired from the night before, but we missed some good looks early on and they kind of hung around and made things difficult for us to put them away."

Twice in the third quarter, BDS crawled out to a seven-point lead just to see NL hit a couple of shots and edge back into the game.

The Eagles held just a three-point lead entering the final quarter.

Free throw shooting made the difference as the Eagles went 6-7 from the line in the as well as getting a good defensive stop on the final NL possession to get away with a three-point margin at the end.

Christensen came off the bench to provide some scoring leading the way with 14 points. Norder and Gines finished with eight points apiece.

Kleinschmidt had seven along with a team high five assists in addition to holding NL leading scorer to no points on the night.

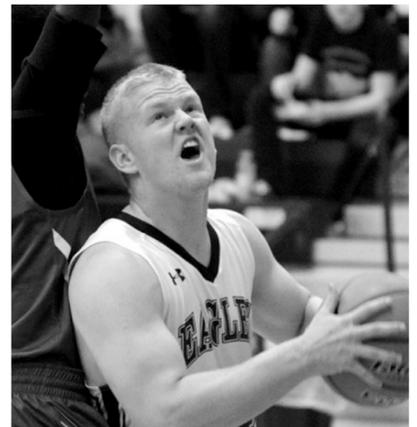

"Kale is such a solid defender," said Coach Kluck. "Sometimes, he makes it look so effortless that kind of gets lost in the shuffle."

Beavers had five points and a team high eight rebounds. Stengel and Schardt each contributed four points to wrap up the team scoring for the night.

BDS will be in the MUDECAS tournament held at Beatrice all this week.

Noel Gines looked for the shot against an undefeated Nebraska Lutheran.

Eagle John Christensen came off the bench to lead the team scoring at 14 points.

Deshler girls limit turnovers

The Deshler Dragon girls' basketball team held their turnovers to 14 against the Thayer Central Titans, but struggled with rebounds, Coach Andy Brenn said.

"We struggled to match their (the Titans) aggressiveness on the boards," Brenn said.

The physical game ended with the Dragons on top, 57-48.

"We did an excellent job of battling with the Lady Titans when they were hitting shots and keeping a comfortable five-point lead on us," Brenn said.

The game was won by free throw shooting, he said.

The Deshler girls went 20-27 from the line. Tori Schoof made seven points; Kayla Oakman and Sydney Roth, four each; Cassady Mundhenke, three; and Jaden Siegle, two.

"If you shoot like that, you are going to put yourself in a good position for victory," Brenn said.

In overall points, Schoof led the scoring with 15. Oakman was close behind with 14. Also in double digits was Roth, 11, and Siegle, 10. Mundhenke and Braelyn Isernhagen, two.

Roth was the lone Lady Dragon to shoot one from the perimeter for three points.

Siegle led with three offensive and four defensive rebounds. Schoof had a total of six and Oakman, Mundhenke and Roth, three each.

Steals went to Isernhagen, Schoof and Roth, who each stole three balls. In assists, it was Schoof for four. Oakman had three and Mundhenke, two.

"This was a great win for our girls in front of our supportive fans," Brenn said. "It's always fun playing your country rivals and coming out on top in a packed gym."

The Lady Dragons took on Shelton the night before, winning the conference game, 49-18.

"This was probably one of our most complete games we've played all season,"

Brenn said. "We did a great job on the offensive and defensive end of the floor."

The girls are playing with some confidence right now and Brenn hopes that will keep going through the stretch of games this month.

Scoring 27 points for the team was Roth, who also had two, 3-point baskets and nine shots from the line.

The next highest score was Schoof for eight points. She made one 3-pointer.

Roth led in rebounds with 11 and the rest of the team balanced out with Amanda Schultz and Siegle at four and Elle Baker with three. Tyra Mohrmann grabbed two rebounds, along with Leah Schmidt and Oakman.

The girls were into snatching balls as well. Isernhagen had five steals. Oakman and Siegle, three each. Mohrmann, Oakman and Schmidt stole two balls each.

Schultz, Schoof and Oakman made two assists each. Siegle made three.

The Lady Dragons battled the Lady Titans in a physical game Jan. 7. Free throw shooting contributed heavily to the Dragon win.

Deshler area man bowls the highest series since Blue Valley Bowl opened in 1959

By Jennifer Czekai
Deshler Rustler

Manny Motto, of Deshler, rolled an amazing 837 series on December 14, 2016 in the American League. He was in the zone and he only saw pins. "I have never been this dialed in before. It was a weird feeling, but neat. My wife had never seen me bowl like that".

This year's season has been great and the lanes are in great condition at Blue Valley Bowl. Manny said this is all made possible by Dale and Janice Klaumann and their son, Dave. "I always have new goals in sight, and this year I was out to challenge myself, and I did just that by breaking my own record of 801 from 2014". Manny has been bowling since 1991, and in Hebron since 1994. "When I first started to bowl my average scores were 150.

I took lessons from Dale at the bowling center, and my averages were about 200. I decided that I wanted to keep growing in the sport of bowling, so I took lessons from the PBA. I bowl on two different leagues in Hebron: on Monday (City League) and Wednesday (American League) nights." In 1995, he bowled his very first 700 series. He credits his new averages to all the support from his family and friends. "I would not be where I am right now without them all." Manny, Michelle, Mariah, and Manny Jr. the 4th are all avid bowlers. "My children have been bowling at Blue Valley Bowl since they were 5 years old." I had the chance to see some of the trophies, and scholarships that have been won by Mariah and Manny Jr.

The children have a great time learning on Saturdays from the Klaumann family. Dale said that he has over 350 people come through the bowling center a week for the 35-week league season.

This year, the youth had a season that lasted about 21 weeks. Manny has had the chance to bowl in a few pro bowl tournaments, qualified for the US open, and was in the top 10 at state 3 times, 2013, 2014, 2015. "While I competed in the Pro Regional I had the chance to meet Norm Duke, Pete Weber, and Walter Ray Williams, Jr. It was a honor to say that I got to bowl with them". Manny has given back to many different charities by participating in their bowling competitions.

It was a great honor to see all the trophies, rings, and patches that he has won over the years, as his bowling averages, and passion took off. He credits his passion to keep going from Gary McGhghy, and Dean Blinco. "It's great to see them come back, and bowl after their illnesses, for the love of the sport, and camaraderie." Manny travels with a Northern travel league, and while he is out at different centers he hears so many great compliments about Blue Valley Bowl, in Hebron, about their lane conditions, clean facilities and the fact that the Klaumann family are great hosts to bowling tournaments. "Blue Valley Bowl is by far the best in the area, no one else is even close. Bowlers are having fun, and some of them are shooting their best 700 series, too many to mention". Manny himself has bowled 700 and over 16 times so far this season (35 weeks).

 "I would love to be able to go to a PBA Regional and win. Just to go would be an honor." Manny has over 40 different kinds and types of bowling balls, and when he travels to tournaments he travels with up to 15 at a time because he never knows what kind of lane conditions he will have. As I was talking to Manny, I learned that there is a great lesson in math that goes along with bowling, so kids pay attention in geometry class.

Manny feels that he and Dale Klaumann have a father/son bond, along with the other men on his team. He attributes them to having his back, and making him a stronger bowler: Rick Kassebaum, LaVonne Kassebaum, Dean Krueger, Larry Seaman, Gary McGhghy, and Glenn Hintz.

Lady Eagles aggressive on court

The Bruning Davenport Shickley Lady Eagles welcomed the Nebraska Lutheran Lady Knights Jan. 7 and traveled to Giltner Jan. 6 for a round of weekend competition.

The girls took both games — final scores were 66-29 against the Knights and 57-29 in the contest with the Hornets.

From the start, the girls applied full court pressure and gained an 11-0 lead before the Knights got their first basket.

"We found ourselves in foul trouble in the first quarter," Coach Shana Gerberding said. "Nebraska Lutheran was in the double bonus the entire second quarter."

The Lady Eagles switched to a zone defense and attempted to avoid fouls. Despite the trouble, they remained aggressive on both ends of the court, taking a 32-15 lead by halftime.

The second half was all Eagles, Gerberding said.

"They were out of reach for the Knights early in the third quarter," she added.

Carley Elznic scored 15 points and snatched 10 rebounds. Megan Grote followed with 13 points and Lexi Kadel added 11.

"Megan played well and it was good to see her more aggressive on the offensive end," Gerberding said. "Lexi's host wasn't falling right away, but she continued to shoot."

In the Giltner game, the girls also applied the pressure to force turnovers.

"The full court pressure by the girls proved to be too much for the Lady Hornets," Gerberding said.

The Hornets overturned the ball a total of 26 times.

Shooting well was Kadel, going 8-10 from the field for 16 points.

"She did a great job of finding her teammates on the offensive end," Gerberding said.

Elznic ran the floor for easy baskets and added her own 16 points, going 8-10.

Gerberding said Regan Alfs also had a hot hand on the evening, going 5-6 from the floor and knocking down two shots from the line for 12 points.

TaraLee Hudson chipped in eight points.

"The girls played well and it was a total team effort," Gerberding said. "Our defense led to our offense."

VILLAGE OF CHESTER DECEMBER 14, 2016

The Board of Trustees of the Village of Chester, Thayer County, Nebraska, met at 7:30 p.m. at the Village Hall on December 14, 2016, for their regular monthly meeting. Board members present were: Chairman: Carbonneau and Trustees: Wassom, Pachta, Miller and Porter.

Chairman Carbonneau called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. The minutes of the previous meeting were reviewed. Wassom moved and Pachta seconded a motion to approve the minutes of the November meeting. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller and Porter. Nays: None. Motion carried.

The treasurers report was then given. Porter moved and Wassom seconded a motion to approve the treasurers report. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Having been duly elected, in the November election, to the Board of Trustees, Mark Miller took the oath of office.

Mike Schultes, of JEO Consulting Group, was at the meeting to review the sewer project, with the Board, and gave a project update. He showed maps of what has been done and what is left. Since the project is running under budget, Pachta moved and Porter seconded a motion to install one drop manhole assembly and to grout as many manholes as possible, up to the original loan/grant funding. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Alist of nuisances, in the village, has been compiled and discussed by the Board. The Board received an official written complaint about the unlicensed and junk vehicles that are lining the street near the Post Office and impeding the view of traffic in that area. It was also noted that they are too close to the fire hydrant and also blocks visibility at the corner of Thayer Ave and North Railway streets. Albert Steinman, owner of the vehicles, will be contacted about this matter, as the Board would like to resolve this problem as they have been receiving many complaints.

Wassom introduced Ordinance 2016-3, an ordinance to revise all of the ordinances of the Village of Chester by adopting the Nebraska Basic Code of Ordinances, and read the same aloud in full. Porter moved for the adoption of Ordinance No. 2016-3 with Pachta seconding the motion. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried. Trustee Porter moved that the rules requiring reading Ordinance No. 2016-3 by title on three different days be suspended. Pachta seconded the motion. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Three fourths of all members of the Board of Trustees approving said Ordinance, the Chairman declared it passed and adopted. The Chairman in the presence of the Village Board of Trustees, signed and approved said Ordinance and the Village Clerk attested its passage and approval and affixed her signature and the seal of the Village thereto. The Ordinance will be posted at the Western National Bank, Post Office and Village Hall for public viewing.

For reorganization purposes, the meeting was then turned over to the Clerk who asked for nominations for Chairman of the Board. Porter moved to nominate Carbonneau for Chairman of the Board. Pachta seconded the motion. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller and Porter. Nays: None. Abstained: Carbonneau. Chairman Carbonneau again presided over the meeting.

Wassom moved and Pachta seconded a motion to retain JEO Consulting Group as the village engineers, and appoint Ryan Kavan from JEO Consulting Group as the village's Street Superintendent, retain Western National Bank as the official depository, retain Hebron Journal Register as the official newspaper, retain Village Attorney, Joseph Murray/Germer, Murray and Johnson and retain Blobaum & Busboom as village auditors. Committees: Auditorium, Pachta and Wassom, Water, Miller and Carbonneau, Sewer, Wassom and Porter, Electricity, Carbonneau, Pachta and Wassom, Parks, Porter and Wassom, Fire Department, Miller and Pachta, Senior Center, Pachta and Porter, Streets, Carbonneau and Miller, Garbage, Carbonneau and Pachta, and the Board of Health, Pachta, Porter, Carbonneau and County Sheriff. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Pachta moved and Wassom seconded a motion to go into executive session at 8:58 p.m. to discuss employee salaries and benefits. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried. Wassom moved and Pachta seconded a motion to come out of executive session at 9:33 p.m. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays:

None. Motion carried. Porter moved and Miller seconded a motion to retain employees Judy Smith and Raymond Wit, setting Judy's salary at $17,040.00 and Raymond's at $49,500.00 reimbursing their insurance premiums and Raymond's H.S.A. Roll call votes: Ayes: Wassom, Pachta, Miller, Porter and Carbonneau. Nays: None. Motion carried.

Year in Review...

Their times were 15:30:43 and 16:15:07, respectively, for the 2.4-mile swim, 112-mile bicycle ride and 26.2-mile run.

•The Hebron Volunteer Fire Department held its annual fire safety day for Thayer Central Elementary students during Fire Prevention Week. Fire fighters filled a lockerroom with smoke to teach students how to crawl through the smoke to safety.

•Diane Wettstein became the new executive director for Thayer County Economic Development Alliance. Wettstein is from Illinois and has family in the Bruning area. In her first week, Wettstein visited more than 17 businesses.

•The Union Pacific Living Legend Engine #844 rolled into the Whistle Stop Station in Belvidere Oct. 14 and Oct. 30 on a historic run.

•Elliot Epstein and Ashley Harms were named Homecoming King and Queen on the Thayer Central field.

•The long awaited opening of Brand X restaurant in Hebron was announced. After a year of overcoming personal struggles, the Bosco family was ready for business.

•The Oregon Trail marathon and half marathon made its debut with a spaghetti feed and entertainment on the night prior to the event. Over 90 runners from 13 states participated and seven, four-person teams ran a half marathon relay. Wesley Hochstetler of Shickley was first in the men's 40 and over division Cecelia Catlett of Bruning capped the women under 40. In addition, the winning team for the Pony Express half marathon relay was made up of Thayer Central cross country runners, Dylan Fischer, Damian Stewart, Keegan Casey and Isaac Friesen.

•The Titan boys cross country team qualified for state, along with Kylie Pachta. Individual finishers in the top 15 were Aubrey Fangmeier in 10th and Dylan Fischer, 11th.

•The Bruning Davenport Shickley Eagles advanced to the state playoffs as the No. 2 seed for Class D-2.

November

•Michael Burcham resigned as chief executive officer for Thayer County Health Services, citing family as the reason. Burcham planned to become vice president of physician practices at Lake Regional Health System in Missouri.

•A story on Daylight Donuts, owned by Dan and Christy Engle ran. Engle opened the shop in October and said customer service would be at the top of his list.

•The general election saw Nebraskans and Americans at large electing Donald Trump for president.

•Brothers and veterans, Brandon and Anthony Modlin told their stories of military service. Brandon served in Iraq with the Nebraska Army National Guard and Anthony in Afghanistan for the Nebraska Army Reserve.

•Ten veterans were honored at the Thayer Central Veterans Day ceremony with Quilts of Honor, made by local quilters and members of 4-H. They were Dwight Pumphery, Kenneth Eggers, Ivan Ayers, Dale Johnson, Wilfred Mussman, Robert Bacon, Lawrence Traudt, Roger Retzlaff, Kathryn Retzlaff and Shawn Winans.

•Spring Creek Museum in Deshler was featured, showcasing more than 80 saddles, western china and other historic pieces.

•Kerrey Miller, Jamie Houser, Hannah Dunlap, Clara Hartley and Lacey Wagner descended on Blue Valley Lutheran Homes as the new administrative team. Miller, who is the chief executive officer, said the team will move toward what's best for Blue Valley's aging population.

•Hannah B's on Lincoln Avenue reopened for business under Trey Pinkerman, who was planning to use the Hannah B's menu while introducing his own creations.

•It was learned Southeast Community College would open its Hebron Learning Center in the spring. The center will be located at the former Thayer Central primary building.

December

•The Hebron Chamber of Commerce held a Snowball Drop contest, complete with prizes, gift certificates and chamber bucks.

•A new chief executive officer was hired for Thayer County Health Services. Native David Burd is expected to begin Jan. 25. His experience in oversight and finance is an asset as he takes over amidst hospital construction.

•Elementary students took on a variety of goodwill projects for the Christmas holidays. Some honored law enforcement officers while others collected food for families. Third grade students had their own special project to work on — they purchased gifts for patients at Omaha Children's Hospital.

•Dear Santa letters ran in the Hebron Journal-Register and included Laelynn wishing Santa a happy birthday, questions about Santa's house from Hayden and Paisley, who wanted to know how Santa's reindeer were doing.

•The Korff Fitness and Wellness Center was completed and ready to accept members 24 hours a day, beginning in January. The $6.9 million, 17,000-square foot wellness center was possible through the Glenn Korff estate.

Titan Speakers begin season

The Thayer Central Speech team kicked off its season at the Adams Central speech meet Jan. 7. They had 12 entries for the meet and collected three, third place medals. Placers were Senior Collin Fink (varsity persuasive); Senior Hyeon Wang (novice persuasive); and Freshman Erin Lane (novice poetry). Coach Justin Bomar said it was a strong start to the season and three additional speakers were just shy of placing. The young team showed they were up for the competition. They will prepare for their home meet Jan. 21. The Thayer Central Titan Speakers are (Front row) Kaizley Krupicka, McKenzie Johnson, Bridget Linton, Holly Timmerman, Hyeon Wang, Amanda Minge and Erin Lane. (Middle) Julie Johnson, Reata Elting, Tionna Wiedel, MaryRuth Dodes, Collin Fink, Yong Wang, Brooklyn Hergott, Ashley Harms, Sophia Shope and Mickael Halverstadt. (Back) Kylie Pachta, Keegan Casey, Dylan Fischer, Dakota Cherney, Maggie Harris and Dalton Williams. Not pictured: Sierra Hatcher, Elliot Epstein, Samantha Wiedel and Cienna Friesen.

Oak

By Phyllis Schmitt

Donna Gillan joined others for quilting last Monday. Wednesday, she attended Bible Study and then joined the Nelson Rubies in going to Superior to Bigs Diner for lunch. Thursday, she went with Jim and Terri Oltmans to Lincoln, and they had lunch at Valentino's. Sunday after church, the ladies went to Cap's Cafe for lunch.

Gaylen and Jackie Cox attended a surprise birthday party at the Edgar Legion Club on Saturday for their twins, James and Jeff Cox, on their 40th birthday.

Phil and Gerry Eckles attended the brunch on Sunday after Mass.

That's all folks! Maybe it will warm up and there will be more news next week.
