Joseph Hall, Abby Nicole headline fair

Joseph Hall, king of the award-winning Elvis Rock 'N Remember tribute show and Abby Nicole and County Road, a five-piece country and classic rock band from Northeast Nebraska, will entertain at this year's fair July 20-22. Fair dates are July 19-22. Hall is scheduled July 20 in the grandstand at 8 p.m. (free admission); and Abby Nicole, July 21 in the grandstand, 8 p.m. and July 22, on the beer garden stage at 9 p.m.

Hall will show the roots of Elvis's musical career as he caters to the young and young at heart. He has the look, voice, charm and moves that will take the audience back to a time when parents were flabbergasted at Elvis's provocative hip action.

In Hall's show, he takes spectators through a journey of Elvis hits from rock and roll to country, pop, rhythm and blues and gospel. The show includes a heartfelt tribute to veterans and teddy bears and scarves to woo the ladies.

Hall was born in 1984 and has paid tribute to the legacy of Elvis Presley since 2006. He was on NBC's America's Got Talent in 2008, making six television appearances. Hall was viewed by more than 90 million people and placed as one of the top 10 finalists.

He has performed all over the world, including Las Vegas and Porthcawl, Wales. As a result, he has won many awards, such as the "Spirit of Elvis" award. He worked with Elvis Presley Enterprises, Legends in Concert and has officially been recognized as one of the top Elvis tribute artists in the world today.

Hall completed six seasons in Branson, Mo.

"My goal is to capture the essence of Elvis Presley, to pay tribute to him with the utmost respect to his legacy, his music, his image and above all else his fans," Hall said.

Abby Nicole and County Road formed in 2014 with vocalist Abby Uecker; Mitch Benson on bass guitar and vocals; Mark Rakowsky, lead guitar and vocals; Chad Barnhill on drums and vocals; and Paul Lux, keyboard and vocals.

Abby Nicole and County Road perform covers by artists like Miranda Lambert and Little Big Town, Patsy Cline and Johnny Cash and John Mellencamp and Cheap Trick.

The band brings high energy to the stage and engages the crowd to dance and sing along.

Set lists include top country hits, such as Walkin' After Midnight, Here For The Party, Crazy, Joy To The World and Hurts So Good.

The band also performs original music, written by lead vocalist and songwriter Uecker.

Although they are scheduled to perform twice, Abby Nicole and County Road promises two completely different shows.

Addition, awning improvements at fair

The 2017 Thayer County Fair board has made improvements to the fairgrounds in Deshler to prepare for the upcoming Thayer County Fair, July 19-22.

Adonation from the family of the late Brenda Kerns helped with a 26 by 92-foot addition to the south side of the 4-H building, which has been covered with an awning. Lights and cement flooring are also part of the addition in memory of Kerns.

Two permanent shelter covers are on the north side of the grandstand inside the gate.

Fair goers can enjoy shade and watch the beer garden entertainment on the new stage at the east end of the beer garden, which will allow for better viewing and sound.

The horse barn received a new coat of paint by 4-H group, Big Green. New cement will be poured, along with new lighting installed and lighting repairs.

The Brenda Kerns family helped make this 26 by 92-foot awning at the 4-H building on the fairgrounds possible.

Sign update

Welcoming signs to Hebron are being updated by the city and chamber of commerce, like this one on Highway 81 at the Lincoln Avenue exit.

Mutton Busters, ranch rodeo for kids

McClain's Mutton Busters is family-owned and versatile entertainment. Matt and Lorraine are known for fun-filled family entertainment with clown acts and jokes, rodeo events and mutton busting for kids young and old.

The Kids Ranch Rodeo places no limit on activities. It is the same as the traditional Ranch Rodeo, only the kids version uses wooden horses and cows. The cows give real milk and no one will be bucked off a wooden horse.

The Wild Cow Milking involves teams of four set up by the people running the show. Each team runs to the cow and catches her for milking and getting her back to the judge.

The Dummy Roping event teaches children to rope. Miniature feed sack and ropes are furnished.

Pygmy goats are available for the Goat Tie and even the toddlers can get involved. A ribbon is put on the tail of a goat and all the kids have to do is grab the ribbon and give it to the judge.

There are activities for parents and grandparents. The mutton busting and kids rodeo is July 21 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Registration for mutton busting from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. in front of the grandstand.

Well drilling stay until December

The Board of Directors of the Little Blue Natural Resources District took action at its June 15 meeting to impose an immediate temporary stay on the drilling of new high-capacity water wells throughout the district.

High capacity water wells are those which pump over 50 gallons per minute. The vote was 9 to 8.

According to Mike Onnen, manager of the district, the stay is being enforced to give the board time to complete revisions to the current groundwater rules and regulations, without creating a spike in new well drilling.

“Some on the board have concerns that when new rules are being discussed, producers may feel the window of time to install new wells may close and they may be prevented from drilling a new well,” Onnen said. “This was the case in the Lower Republican NRD several years ago, and the board wants to avoid that rush to drill and a potential overdraft on the water supply.”

State law provides for a temporary 180-day stay while the district contemplates permanent rules.

The NRD is also required by law to conduct a public hearing within the 180-day period and determine what action might be necessary on well permits which had been approved before the immediate stay but which had not been drilled.

The board of directors are working rule changes, which would be more proactive in managing the underground water supplies.

“Groundwater levels have continued a slow but steady decline across the district for many years,” Onnen said. “Our current triggers allow far too much aquifer depletion before implementation of controls which could preserve the resource.”

“Our groundwater is too precious a resource and too valuable for the economy and wellbeing of our area to allow depletions to continue,” he concluded.

The temporary stay began with the board's action June 15 and will terminate Dec. 12.
