Blue Valley Community Action Family Development Coordinator Julie Hibbs tallied the weight of the food being checked in for 10/11 NBC Nebraska Can Care-A-Van June 8. She was assisted by Deshler Mayor Naomi Grupe. Hibbs said Blue Valley collected so much food, she had to adjust the collection goal several times.

Blue Valley bumps food goal

The original goal for Blue Valley Community Action Partnership of Hebron was to collect 4,000 pounds of food at the Can Care-A-Van stop June 8, but soon after the collection began, Family Development Coordinator Julie Hibbs penciled in another goal.

By 11:30 a.m., 6,490 pounds were collected and 10 minutes later, the total jumped to 6,598 pounds because Cargill donated a $1,000 check, which was converted to pounds for Blue Valley's count. Meanwhile, girl scouts were busy filling shelves in the back room.

Representing NBC Nebraska, morning co-anchors out of Hastings, Russ Batenhorst and station manager Al Uerling said each town they visit lends its own unique twist on the project, now in its 30th year.

Both were impressed with Hebron's effort with its "labor force of amazing proportions" — Hebron Girl Scout Troop 941 and a pack of other volunteers.

Winners of the raffle drawings were Cathy Dick, 40-inch Sanyo flat screen television donated by Thrivent of Thayer County; Ed Brungardt, barbecue grill and accessories donated by True Value in Hebron and Thayer County Bank; Rita Luongo, barbecue grill and accessories donated by True Value in Hebron and Thayer County Bank; Cliff Rippe, custom painted rocking chair donated by Tony Once; Aaron Peterson, Alexandria Lakes

Snack Shack $25 gift card donated by Snack Shack owner Deb Callaway; Kristen S., Yeti insulated mug donated by Reinke; Christy Farnstrom, Lauritzen Gardens Family of four pass donated by Lauritzen Gardens; Naomi Tuttle, $25 gift card to Licht Oil; Mary Fangmeier, $25 gift card to The Bottle Shop and $25 gift card to Brand X Saloon; Alicia Howe, $20 gift card to Daylight Donuts; Kathy Retzlaff, $25 gift card to Central Market; Stacey McLaughlin, Welcome Sign from Pallet-Able Creations; Haley W., children's toy from Preifert's Pharmacy; Cliff Rippe, $25 gift card to Amanda's Cottage; Jill Schmidt, $25 gift card to Casey's; Nona Lee, $25 gift card to Casey's.

Cargill took the Blue Valley collection count up with a $1,000 donation. Girl Scout Troop 941 held the check up in between carrying boxes of food to the back and filling pantry shelves.

Vogel honored with 50 years...

Ken Vogel received his 50-year licensed funeral director award at the Nebraska Funeral Directors Association Convention held in Kearney in May. He has served families at Metcalf Funeral Home in Lincoln for 29 years and 21 years at Price Funeral Home in Hebron, Ahrendts Funeral Home in Deshler and Urbauer-Price Funeral Home in Davenport. Vogel continues to support families in the area and considers it an honor.

Rockin' in Roosevelt draws all ages for Hebron festival

7 Days Sober took the stage to kick the evening off for the Rockin' in Roosevelt/Hear Nebraska Good Living Tour, featuring Thayer Central alumni Cole Harris (right), drummer Cameron Church and bass player Mark Lattner for several original songs. More photos of the event may be found at hearnebraska.com.

Free activities for children included a liquid chalk paint-fest. The mixture, made from cornstarch, water and food coloring, kept budding artists busy.

The Charity Chair Auction was held between bands with Clayton Hergott as the auctioneer. Hebron Chamber of Commerce Director Jana Tietjen assisted Hergott.

Anyone who was involved with the World's Largest Covered Porch Swing was invited to the stage. From left are Shirley Theil, Ruth Bergmeier (Lyle Arnold's daughters), Kris Reckewey, Kathy Fink (Joyce Ortman's daughters), John Davis and Tim O'Callaghan. Lyle Arnold helped with the welding to bring pieces of the porch swing together — the swing was built in pieces for moving purposes. It was Joyce Ortman who proposed the idea. John Davis was an engineer at Reinke's who donated his time to help and Tim O'Callaghan's father, Paul, was the original designer of the swing, which was built to seat 32.

Cattlemen...

about the entire south-central Nebraska area.

"This is the largest cancer fundraiser in Nebraska," Hergott said.

"It all stays in Nebraska," Marsh said about the funds. "I'm proud of that."

Also serving as event and co-chairs are John and Lynn Greer, Pat and Carlece Kenner, Mike and Ellen Long, Dick and Cheryl Walsh and Gregg and Janice Wiedel.

Volunteer coordinator is Karla Deepe. Event coordinator is Julie Katz.

In August, the committee will tour the Fred and Pamela Buffet Cancer Center in Omaha, a 10-story, 98-laboratory research tower with an eight-story, 108-bed inpatient treatment center and multidisciplinary outpatient center.

The traveling spurs of the Cattlemen's Ball sit in front of Hergott Enterprises and will make their way around the area until the 2018 ball.
