Anthony Fehr, (left) formerly of Davenport, was the honored at a luncheon reception by his Washington University professor, Dr. Dong Yu (right) after receiving his doctorate in St. Louis, Mo..

May 5, Anthony Fehr formerly of Davenport received his doctorate of philosophy in microbiology from Washington University in St. Louis, Mo.

Anthony was a 2001 graduate of Bruning-Davenport and 2005 graduate of the University of Nebraska in biochemistry.

Dr. Dong Yu, Anthony's professor honored him with a noon luncheon reception following

Anthony's defense presentation to other professors, fellow grad students and his family. He has been conducting genetic research on a virus over the last six years and has published two papers to medical journals.

Tony will continue working as a post-doctorate, but is presently seeking a fellowship at another university.

Presently he resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife Rachel and son Darin. Tony is the son of Roger and Chris Fehr of rural Davenport, grandson of Arla and Wendell Zabel of Hebron and Milton Fehr of Sutton.

B-D Elementary Track Meet Held

Bruning-Davenport hosted its annual track meet on May 6, under the direction of Doug Otto, physical education instructor.

Students participated in seven events. The events were high jump, flexed arm hang, standing or running long jump, softball throw, 50m dash, 75m dash, 100m dash, 200m dash and 400m run. Ribbons were awarded for the top six places in each event.

Hunter Krehnke, sixth grader, placed first in all his events and tied the high jump record of 4'7 1/2".

Morgan Lowery, sixth grader, swept all of her events. Cameron Vollet, kindergartner tied the meet record in the high jump with 2'10".

It was an enjoyable day for everyone. Bruning-Davenport staff and high school students helped in making the meet run smoothly.

The students really enjoyed the opportunity to compete.

Bruning Federated Women's Club Visits Lake Mansion

Nine members of the Bruning Woman's Club met for lunch on May 10.

A short business meeting was held and Co-president Lola Johnson showed the awards the club won at the state convention. The awards were as follows: Program/Projects-International Outreach-Partnership- ESO Reading Program-two members Marie Huber and Delma Bruning; CreativeArts Program-Education, Conservation and Home Life Collaborations.

Several members brought items for YRTC and items can still be given for them to Lola this month and she will deliver them in June.

On May 16, pop tabs will be picked up at Bruning-Davenport Second Grade room in Davenport and will be delivered to Omaha. District IV Workshop is July 15 in Exeter and the District IV Convention is September 23 in Aurora. Marie read a humorous letter she sent to her classmates inviting them to their 71st alumnae reunion for the thought for the day.

The group then drove to Hebron to tour the Lake Mansion. Two members joined the club there. Ramona Kenning, present owner of the home, took us on a tour through the rooms and told the history of the estate.

It was built for Mrs. Lake by her sister, Mrs. Borden from Chicago, whose husband founded the Borden Milk Company. There are 40 rooms and many of the bedrooms had walk-in closets. The third floor was completely finished in wood from floor to ceiling and was extremely large. Many dances were held there in the past.

The tour ended with cookies provided by Mary Bruning and Ramona provided the coffee.

The group sat in a long L-shaped enclosed porch which was built recently and had ceiling fans for cooling. Several of the rooms were decorated in Hebron senior high school colors as Ramona's grandson was having his graduation party there this weekend. Everyone enjoyed visiting a home that has been built so many years ago in the early 1900's.

The next birthday coffee will be on June 6 with Olive VanDeWalle and Marie Huber as hostesses. There are no Woman's Club meetings during the summer.

Bruning

By Lola Johnson

A large group of relatives and friends gathered at the Vaughn and Vicki Hinrichs picnic area to celebrate Bernard Hinrichs 86th birthday. It was a potluck supper after which Vaughn served his special peach cobbler which he baked over the open fire. He then topped it with a scoop of ice cream. Oh how everyone enjoyed that.

Bernard and Ruby Hinrichs spent Mother's Day with Gary and Carol Peppie.

Kenny and Jeanne Kerwood spent Saturday night at the Vicki and Randy Lyons' family home in Gretna. Sunday the Kerwoods, Lyons and Denise Robeson and family and Dave attended church at the Methodist church in Gretna. Vicki played in the bell choir during the service. After the church service each of the mothers there received a rose. They all then had brunch at the Tiberon Golf Course where the Lyons family will be moving.

Jim and Jayne Germer of Crete were Saturday supper and overnight guests of Jeri Rippe. On Sunday, Jim went to his church in Smith Center, Kan., and Jayne went to church with Jeri. They later went to the Russ and Susan Rippe home in Milford for Mother's Day. Also there were Justin and Noel Cermak and Behrendt, Salaya and Kirah Rippe, all of Lincoln.

Lola Johnson spent from Friday until Monday with Denise, Sam and Mollie Packard in Lincoln. On Saturday afternoon, Dr. Robert and Nancy Swanson of Waconia, Minn., visited them at their house. On Sunday, Lola was a guest for brunch at David, Ronda, Caleb, Abby, Sophia and Livia along with Dr. Robert and Nancy Swanson, Pastor Bill and Shirley Arnold and Roger and Linda Wilkening. On Sunday evening Nancy Packard, Arlene Hanthorn, Dan, Katie, Thomas and Sam Packard had dinner with Denise, Sam and Mollie Packard for Mother's Day. On Monday morning Lola, Denise and Mollie went out for breakfast with Bob and Nancy Swanson, Dave and Ronda Swanson and family and Roger and Linda Wilkening as the Robert Swanson's were leaving for home. That also happened to be part of a celebration of Nancy and Livia Swanson's birthdays that were Monday.

Bruning Memorial Day Services
