Chase results in capture and arrest of two Lincoln teens

Numerous charges over four counties expected

By Jacque Rocole
Hebron Journal-Register

Lynn Vieselmeyer and Dayton Hunt, both 18 and both of Lincoln, will face several charges stemming from a crime spree that extends to four counties including Thayer County. The spree included the destruction of two vehicles stolen from a Lincoln dealership, a burglary in Fairbury and manhunt that lasted almost three hours.

Following their arrest Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 26, both teens were being held in the Thayer County jail for criminal mischief, possession of stolen property and obstructing a police officer, said TC Sheriff David Lee. "It is anticipated that Lancaster, Jefferson and possibly Gage counties will issue warrants," he said. "Information was gathered tying them to crimes in those jurisdictions."

According to a press release issued by the Thayer County Sheriff's Office, a 911 call was received at approximately 8:48 a.m., that a vehicle was on fire four miles east of Hebron on River Road.

Upon arrival at the burning vehicle, Hebron Volunteer Fire Department Chief B.J. Linton pointed out two males running across a field to the river. A witness said they had seen the two teens jump out of the burning 2008 Ford Explorer and start running across the field.

Thayer County deputies, Nebraska State Patrol troopers and a Nebraska Game and Parks officer set up a perimeter and began searching the river area and nearby farmsteads. At about 11:30 a.m., nearly three hours after the search began, conservation officer Darin Gress found the teens hiding under an old grain truck near the river about a half mile west of where they had initially crossed.

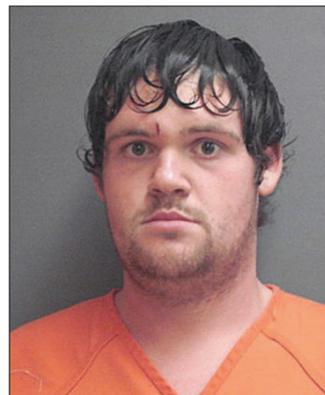

The spree is suspected to have started Tuesday night, Sept. 25, when an employee at Noodles and Co. in Lincoln told police he heard a loud bang at about 10:45 p.m., and when he went outside saw that a black 2005 Ford Focus had been crashed into a support pillar in front of Chipotle Mexican Grill on Pine Lake Road near Noodles and Co. Investigators believe Hunt and Vieselmeyer stole the vehicle from Anderson Auto

Group and crashed it into the pole.

Lincoln authorities believe the two teens then returned to Anderson Auto Group and stole a 2008 Ford Explorer, the vehicle discovered on fire in Thayer County on Wednesday morning. Sheriff Lee said evidence found inside the SUV also linked the teens to a Tuesday night burglary in Fairbury.

According to a press release issued last week from the Fairbury Police Department, Hunt and Vieselmeyer were suspected of breaking into and stealing items from the Pla-More Lanes in Fairbury. The teens are thought to have gained access to the business by removing metal bars and breaking the glass of windows in the alley. The suspects are thought to have taken an undisclosed amount of change, multiple bottles of liquor, cigarettes and a bowling ball bag, which were all found inside the burned SUV on River Road. It was later discovered the SUV was stolen from Anderson Auto Group.

Hunt and Vieselmeyer are facing burglary and vandalism charges in Fairbury. Both are currently being held in the Thayer County jail.

Thayer Central BOE hopes to pass improvement propositions

Thayer Central's board of education and administration are currently putting out information to voters in hopes they will pass a couple of bond issues at the upcoming election Nov. 6. Passage of propositions A and B would allow for extensive physical improvements to the school as well as unify a split campus. Since 1961, the youngest elementary students have attended school at the primary building on Jefferson Avenue in downtown Hebron, while the rest of the students are located at the Thayer Central campus on Eads Ave., nearly one-half mile away.

"My role as superintendent is not to sell this issue as something that has to be done right now, but to provide our voting public with information about our facilities, our enrollment and our needs," said Thayer Central Superintendent Drew Harris in the school's most recent Titan Tablet newsletter. He added that it was also his role to inform the public of the associated costs for the project in order that they could make a better decision about what is in the best interest of the students, school and community. "Whether this bond issue passes or fails, our first priority will be our constant goal to provide our students with a quality education," he said.

An information sheet handed out during parent/teacher conferences two weeks ago indicated that the high school building was built in 1954, the primary building in 1961 and the intermediate building in 1979. Other than recent improvements to the track, roof, and HVAC system in the high school, no major improvements have been made since 1979, the information stated.

"If the bond issue passes, the district would save roughly $100,000 per year in reduced transportation costs, duplicated staff, operational costs, and repairs," Harris stated during one of three town-hall style meetings during the summer. "That represents over $2 million during the life of the bond."

Should the propositions fail, the district will begin to levy funds to repair and improve the facilities through the building fund. And while those improvements would take place over an estimated 12 to 15 years, the current cost is estimated students," Harris noted in the Titan Tablet. "They will no longer need to cross through the parking lot for lunch or classes."

Also included in the $11.1 million plan A are repairs to existing buildings, addition of a staff/student support area and fire suppression system; renovations to the weight room, high school science labs, and restrooms in both buildings; floor coverings throughout both buildings; and new lockers in the high school hallways.

Proposition B includes construction of a new auditorium which the board feels will "allow our students and community greater access to high quality music and drama performances as well as providing a venue for local and guest cultural events." The cost of proposition B is just under $4.8 million, Harris noted in the newsletter. "And proposition B is dependent upon passage of proposition A. We will not build the fine arts addition unless proposition A passes."

TC students participate in global prayer

"See You at the Pole," a global day of student prayer, began in 1990 as a grass roots movement with ten students praying at their school. More than two decades later, millions around the world pray on their campuses on the fourth Wednesday in September. SYATP is simply a prayer rally where students meet at the school flagpole before school to lift up their friends, families, teachers, school, and nation to God. SYATP is a student-initiated, student-organized, and student-led event. On Sept. 26, Thayer Central Community Schools elementary, junior high and high school students and adults took part in the international "See You at the Pole" event. The student-led event is supported by Thayer County community churches and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Now each year, more than 3 million students from around the world participate in "See You at the Pole." Students in more than 20 countries take part.

Pictured above is a chart showing potential costs to property owners should proposed school bond issues pass for Thayer Central Community Schools. Passage of Proposition A (left) would require a monthly cost of $6.70 for anyone owning property valued at $50,000. If both propositions passed, the cost would increase to $9.56 per month for the same valuation.

at over $4.4 million for repairs to outdated facilities that are 30 to 60 years old.

Proposition A proposes the renovation and remodeling of the intermediate and high school in order to close the primary building downtown bringing the K-2 students up to the main campus. The proposition also suggests replacing the parking lot in between the high school and intermediate school with a new gymnasium to connect the buildings into one unified campus. The intermediate gym would then be turned into 12 classrooms. "The gym connection allows students to pass between the two buildings without going outside, which greatly improves safety for intermediate and high school

Finally, the board noted in its handout that according to a study conducted by EDU 5 in Beatrice, schools in Jefferson, Thayer and Fillmore counties were evaluated to create a potential consolidation plan. Due to the age and condition of the TC facilities, the plan did not include the local high school. "But a renovated campus would give Thayer Central the most modern buildings in our county and would serve as a community drawing card for people looking to relocate to this area," the handout stated.

Superintendent Harris said the Board of Education is in the process of planning more community meetings to get all of the information out before Nov. 6.

A schoolhouse, church, town hall and bank are now under course of construction in Hebron.

Morg. Bartlett of Belvidere is now in W.J. Green's employ and is driving the hack from Hebron to Chester.

Our new postmaster, J.M. Fitchpatrick assumed his official duties. About the first on the program was to dun his patrons' box rent.

The family of M.P. Rhodes returned from Decatur County, Kan. They have secured a portion of Mrs. Rice's house for a home.

The woman suffrage cause is gaining very rapidly over the state. It is thought now by many of the opponents of the pending constitutional amendment that it will be adopted.

H.H. Church of Barrington, Ill., was looking after his interests in the county. He took with him three car loads of steers on his return home which he will feed.

A child of Samuel Teter in the northern part of the county was run over by a wagon and for some time its life was despaired of, but at last accounts the little sufferer was doing well.

A gentleman who is a leading B&M man, recently told a representative of the Hebron Journal that it was quite probable the B&M would build a line to Hebron next year.

Last Tuesday night, the boys and girls and some of the old folks of Town Four, gathered at the St. Louis Park and indulged in the light fantastic till the comet admonished them that it was time to retire. Forty-seven numbers were sold. The dancing took place in the barn, where three sets were accommodated at once.

Messrs. Dennis and Kinney are starting a patent stone factory in Carleton and will manufacture stone for building purposes. In a few cases, art has been known to surpass nature, but in this stone business we Hebronites prefer the natural rock.

A gentleman by the name of J.C. Cole is now proprietor of the Commercial House in Chester. It is said by those who have stopped with him that his accommodations and grub are the very best, and that he knows how to run a hotel.

The small boys of town have taken up the old sport of walking on stilts. Several stilt races occurred the other evening after the rain and several boys were seen to roll over in the mud.

Uncle Billy Sykes returned from Missouri bringing with him a better half. Some of the boys from town paid them a visit at night and Uncle Billy set up the watermelons.

The Hebron iron bridge has been repaired with a new plank floor; also the south end has been supported with a heavy stone wall at the bottom, which will for a time prevent the wall from crumbling.

Those who have not seen the comet have missed one of the grandest and most magnificent in the heavens, that is often observed. By getting out in the morning at four or five o'clock you can see it, and it is well worthy of notice.

A little unpleasantness occurred at the house north of the Gettis House last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds parties of the first part and R. Ellison, party of the second part. It appears that Mr. Ellison had previously purchased the property of Edmonds, taking a warranty deed for the same and subsequently sold it to W.L. Thompson. The occupant, Mr. Barstow, was notified to give possession and commenced moving out; at the same time the Edmonds commenced moving in and undertook forcible possession. About this time Mr. Ellison appeared on the field, to prevent them from taking possession, "and then came the tug of war," war to the knife and knife to the hilt!

Bed slats were brought into requisition, but Ellison was the victor and held the fort. Ellison and Edmonds had to purchase each a new shirt. We were not informed as to the third party's loss. Mr. Edmonds carried the marks of battle on his face. We understand the matter will be settled by arbitration.

In the winter of '66-'67,

the following named gentleman organized a bachelor's association. Since that time they have all gone back on their bachelor vows, and taken other vows. And all, save one, have the proud appellation "papa:" W.J. Thompson, papa; A.C. Ring, papa; J.M. Fitchpatrick, papa; W.B. Hughes, nary and Isidore Ebert, papa.

A run-away occurred at the iron bridge last night, by which one of Green's buggies was torn to pieces. As John Williamson was returning from Chester after dark, he attempted to drive past Mr. Buller, whose wagon was loaded with wheat. Just opposite the guide board south of the bridge he drove into a deep washout on the east side of the road. The buggy upset, throwing John out. The team ran away, tearing the buggy to pieces, and the horses ran to Green's house and stopped. Fortunately neither John nor the horses were hurt, but the buggy is a total wreck. But this is not all. As Mr. Buller approached the bridge his team, wagon and load went off the embankment just at the south end of the bridge, the whole business piling up in a heap with Mr. Buller underneath. Had it not been for a tree checking the wagon, Mr. B. would undoubtedly have been badly hurt, if not killed outright. As it was, he was thought to be seriously hurt, but his morning he is able to be out and we trust he will soon be all right again.

We are under obligations to Samuel Fulton for a mass of as fine sweet potatoes as we ever saw, averaging nearly one pound and seven ounces each. Mr. F. has a large amount of these delicious vegetables that he is delivering in town on order.

The Rev. VanFleet of Seward has been sent to this place by the M.E. Conference to take the place of the Rev. Orr, who is now located at Exeter. He is a man of prepossessing appearance and if he is as good at church work as he is at manual labor, he will succeed. He is making a full hand on the new church building.

Hubbell
Van Oldfield is talking of starting a creamery here. He can get the milk from 500 cows.

1892 120 Years Ago

J. Charles Helfrich has sold his interest in the livery stable to Henry Luther, who becomes sole proprietor.

The aristocracy, the elite, the creme de la creme of Hebron society were at the B.&M. depot at 5 a.m. Thursday to see the 28 cars of Ringling Brothers' show unloaded.

The largest crowd of people ever in Hebron was here attending Ringling Brothers' circus and menagerie. As mentioned elsewhere, the cashier of the show said the attendance at the afternoon performance was nearly 9,000. Our estimate was between 5,000 and 6,000, but the cashier is better informed. Twenty-eight cars, six elephants, an immense canvass and three rings with amphitheater race course were some of the features.

Messrs. Chapman and Newell, who recently located in Davenport, are exclusive agents in Thayer County for the Kitzelman woven wire fence. They have the machine and make the fence on the ground where used.

For Thayer County's farm population, 1971 proved to be a better one than it was for farmers and ranchers in many sections of the country. The better showing was due in part to favorable weather conditions, bigger plantings and heavier fertilization. Also improved operating efficiency was made possible by the use of more mechanical equipment. Figures were obtained in a survey report released by the Standard Rate and Data Service. Farm receipts in Thayer County were $21,823,000, compared to the previous three years when the total was $19,214,000.

TC students join thousands across America to host Fields of Faith event Oct. 10

Students from Thayer Central will be joining thousands of other youth on athletic fields all across the nation on Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 7 p.m., to share their Christian faith with fellow students during the seventh annual national Fields of Faith event. This rapidly-growing, interdenominational outreach event will be held at more than 400 locations throughout the nation on this same date.

Fields of Faith is structured as a student-to-student ministry. Peers invite their own classmates and teammates to meet on their school's athletic field to hear fellow students share their testimonies, challenge them to read the Bible and to come to faith in Jesus Christ.

"We're excited to host an event like this on the new football field," said Karen Boatright, Thayer Central Fellowship of Athlete Huddle Leader. "This will be the first Fields of Faith event for Thayer Central."

The national growth of Fields of Faith has been remarkable. Since the beginning of Fields of Faith in 2004, more than 500,000 students have joined in the movement. In 2011 alone, more than 160,000 students gathered on 475 fields across 36 states to participate in the event.

While Fields of Faith has its roots with FCA leadership, the event is designed to include multiple national Christian organizations, local churches and ministries.

More information about Fields of Faith is available at FieldsofFaith.com.

To learn more about the event at Thayer Central, contact Karen Boatright.

October is Physical Therapy Month

No matter what area of the body ails you – neck, shoulder, back, knee – physical therapists have an established history of helping individuals improve their quality of life. A physical therapist can help you move freely again without pain and discomfort and feeling renewed and ready to move on. They can even help you prevent an injury altogether.

For instance, a study of 1,435 NCAA Division I female soccer players demonstrated that those who participated in a physical therapy program had an overall ACL injury rate 41 percent lower than those who did only a regular warm-up prior to practice.

Because physical therapists receive specialized education in a variety of sciences – physics, human anatomy, kinesiology (human movement), to name a few – they understand how the body works and how to get you moving again. They know how to manage all four of the body's major systems – musculoskeletal, neuromuscular, cardiovascular/pulmonary, and integumentary (skin) – to restore and maximize mobility.

Whether you are living with diabetes or recovering from a stroke, a fall, or a sports injury, a physical therapist is a trusted health care professional who will work closely with you to evaluate your condition and develop an effective, personalized plan of care. A physical therapist can help you achieve long-term results for many conditions that limit your ability to move.

While playing golf or doing simple housework may seem harmless, these everyday activities can result in injury due to abnormal movement, stress on joints and strain on muscles. Because physical therapists are experts in knowing how the body works, they are able to design personalized treatment plans to reduce the risk of injury whether in everyday activities or sports.

For example, women perform athletic tasks in a more upright position, putting added stress on parts of the knee such as the ACL, resulting in less controlled rotation of the joint. While men use their hamstring muscles more often, women rely more on their quadriceps, which puts the knee at constant risk. To combat these natural tendencies, your physical therapist may develop a treatment program to improve strength, flexibility, and coordination, as well as to counteract incorrect existing patterns of movement that may be damaging to joints.

Falls among the elderly are prevalent, dangerous, and can diminish their ability to lead an active and independent life. According to the National Aging Council, about one in three seniors above age 65, and nearly one in two seniors over age 80, will fall at least once this year, many times with disastrous consequences. A physical therapist can help you prevent falls by designing an individualized program of exercises and activities with an emphasis on balance, strength, flexibility, and proper gait.

Once a physical therapist has reviewed a complete medical history and conducted a thorough examination, they can develop a personalized plan of care. A physical therapist also may teach specific strengthening and balance exercises that can be performed at home. If necessary, the physical therapist will refer you to other medical professionals, such as an ophthalmologist or neurologist.

Brad Cooper and Steve Williams, doctors of physical therapy at Thayer County Health Services want to help you regain or retain your active lifestyle. If you have questions regarding the physical therapy services available, contact them at 402-768-4633.

TCHS Guild Board Meets

Thinking clearly is an enviable trait possessed by some fortunate individuals and only occasionally by the rest of us. Julie Rhoades, Thayer County Health Services Guild president informed members of the board in attendance that how we do so is of utmost importance when she read the composition "Thinking Clearly at the Sept. 26 meeting.

The meeting continued with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and a copy of the treasurer's report. Both were approved and placed on file. Clearly the membership chairman is always thinking of a way to achieve her goal of 500 members and with help from county contact persons and hospital staff it is becoming a possibility.

In the absence of the hospital administrator the marketing and development director reported that the training on the new accounting software for the clinic staff will begin on Monday. A silent auction held in the hospital lobby at this time consisting of public donations will help provide funds for ongoing projects such as Lights of Love.

Swaddle cloths are presented to mothers of newborns as a soft, pretty departing gift.

The satellite flu clinics will be held in Bruning, Davenport, Deshler, Chester and Milligan. Call 402-768-4629 for needed information as to open times. No appointment is necessary.

More information on the Trunk and Treat activity which will provide safe Halloween activity and treats for area youngsters will be featured in the next Guild column. Call 768-4632 if you would like to participate.

The Nov. 4 TCHS Foundation gala will be held in Deshler at which time the Christmas motif quilt designed and pieced by hospital staff will be raffled.

Donations by the county residents to the thrift shop have been abundant and the results are a well-stocked and attractive priced showroom.

The next scheduled board meeting will be 9 a.m., Oct. 24 in the Bruning Conference room of the hospital.

T. C. Historical Society Finalizes Fall Festival Plans

Fourteen members of the Thayer County Historical Society met Wednesday evening at the Belvidere Community Center. President Steve Delay called the meeting to order and in the absence of the secretary dispensed with the reading of the minutes from the last meeting. Treasurer Lois Pederson reported a total of $824 in the checking account.

Curator Jackie Williamson reported that she and Annette have been very busy cataloging, cleaning and getting ready for the Fall Festival. A gentleman brought in a number of his finely carved wooden model airplanes that he has put on loan to the museum. They will be displayed in showcases bought in Fairbury.

She also reported that plug-ins and lights have been added to the old agricultural building. Steve Delay said that the Visitor's Committee declined to give any money for the tree trimming.

Deb Aarons finished painting the names on the bricks in front of the annex. She spent 80 hours doing this very tedious job. It was voted to give her $100 and a gift certificate to the Belvidere restaurant along with a card.

The Fall Festival plans are progressing as members reported. Dixie gave the report on the vendors that plan to come. The lunch chairman, Linda Hudson, explained the food and help situation and expects to have it under control on festival day. Work schedules were passed around for signing.

The Boy Scouts from Hebron will be helping out all day. Handicapped parking and a shuttle will be worked out too. Robert Reinke reported that the sign north of Belvidere will be done as soon as someone with a lift is found to raise it up on the supports. Steve said he would ask the county men if they could do it. Changes of the by-laws and constitution were tabled until the next meeting.

New business: After the first of the year the color brochures will be brought up to the Visitors Committee for help in payment. Because of Halloween the members agreed that the next meeting should be held on Oct. 24 rather than Oct. 31. Steve Delay then adjourned the meeting.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

October is National Long-term Care Residents' Rights Month, a time to acknowledge the contributions and sacrifices many long-term care (LTC) residents have made to better our community and to call attention to the rights of residents in long-term care facilities.

This year's theme, My Voice, My Vote, My Right, was selected to call attention to the fact that residents of LTC facilities still have the right to vote and participate politically. Residents of LTC facilities have experienced many important historical, political events. It is important that they are given the opportunity to continue to participate in the political process and that voting is made accessible to them.

By listening to residents' voice, we honor their lives and experiences as well as treat them with dignity and respect; staff and residents can enjoy relationships that enhance their day-to-day lives; and the long-term care facility can operate more effectively in its daily activities when based on and developed with consumer involvement.

Many people care about residents — family members, citizen advocates, long-term care ombudsmen, facility staff and others. This care can be truly individualized and focused on each person's needs and preferences.

During Residents' Rights Month, we recognize our local long-term care ombudsman program staff and volunteers, who work daily to promote residents' rights, assist residents with complaints and provide information to those who need to find a long-term care facility. In this area, the ombudsman program serves eight counties in the southeast area and can be reached at 402-223-1376, Barb Ebke at Blue Rivers Area Agency on Aging in Beatrice.

I encourage community members to visit those they know in a long-term care facility, volunteer in a facility, participate in Residents' Rights Month events or inquire about becoming a volunteer long-term care ombudsman.

Your assistance and attention helps to ensure that the voices of long-term care residents do not go unheard and demonstrates to residents that they have not been forgotten.

BARB EBKE,
Ombudsman

Obituaries

Dessie "Goldie" Bartling

Dessie Goldie Bartling was born Oct. 7, 1919, in Mullen to Omar Pash and Eva (McMillan) Hendershot. She departed this world Tuesday, Sept. 25, 2012, at Blue Valley Nursing Home in Hebron at the age of 92 years.

Goldie, as she wanted to be called, lived her childhood years in Deshler until her senior year of high school when her family moved to Hebron. She graduated from Hebron High School in 1937.

On Oct. 17, 1937, she was married to Fred W. Bartling in Belleville Kan. They were blessed with the birth of seven children.

Living most of their married years on Olive Avenue in Hebron, their 58 year union was interrupted with Fred's passing in 1996. The long separation has now ended and they are together again with the Lord.

Goldie was a devoted stay-at-home mother and homemaker. Her life revolved around her family and children. She took pride in her years of service to Cub Scouts and Girls Scouts, her job of monitoring children on the playground and busses for Hebron schools, and being the after school and summertime
"mom" to many neighborhood children. She was an active member of the Hebron Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary.

Goldie's passion was sewing, tailoring most of her family's clothing. From pot holders to wedding dresses, her favorite was sewing doll clothes. She was an accomplished bread baker, and she put the divine in her homemade divinity. She loved to camp, visit her family, and play games, especially with her grandkids.

She is preceded in death by her husband, parents, infant sister, brother Walter, sister Ruth, son LaRue, and grandson Richard.

She leaves behind daughters
Beverly Scholz of Centerville, Ind.; Bonnie Motley and husband Keith of Hebron; Nancy Sackschewsky and husband
Lynn of Fort Wayne, Ind.;

Christina Wolff and husband
Michael of Gothenburg; sons, Robert and wife Debra of Sergeant Bluff, Iowa; Glenn
and wife Jane of Deshler; grandchildren, Kelli (Pat) Maguire; Russell (Julie) Bartling;
Steve (Tammy) Scholz, Sherri
(Keith) Theimer; Shelly (Jim)
Jakubowski; Brian (Rhea)
Motley; Janelle Samuelson; Leanne (Darin) Hill; Katherine (Kevin) Robbins; Scott (Jada) Sackschewsky; Matthew (Kandra) Sackschewsky; Angela (Timothy) Higgins;
Barbara (Brent) Jensen; Brenda (Jason) Waugh; Michelle (Jameson) Peters; Jennifer (Dwight) Owens; Andrew
Bartling; Timothy (Chelsea)
Bartling; Jessica Wolff; 43 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Counting spouses as family, which Goldie always did, she leaves our world a legacy of 94 descendants.

Following their wishes and desire to help others, Goldie and Fred requested that their bodies be donated to the University of Nebraska Medical Center for the training of young doctors.

A memorial service celebrating Goldie's life will be held at the First Community Church in Hebron on Sunday,
Oct. 7, at 2 p.m.

Ellen Overturf

Ellen Maxine Overturf, the daughter of Jimmie and Florence (Fitzwater) Kubicek, was born on Sept. 5, 1929, on a farm north of Oak. She passed away on Sept. 25, 2012, at her home in Superior at the age of 83 years and 20 days.

Ellen was educated in Fletcher Country School near Oak and graduated from Nelson High School in 1946.
Following graduation Ellen taught at Marshall Country School for one year and Pilgrim Country School for two years.

She was united in marriage to Billy Overturf on February 20, 1949, in Ong. This union was blessed with two children.
Ellen and Billy lived on the family farm north of Oak for 57 years until moving to Superior.

The joy of her life was her family. She enjoyed everyone's visits, letters and telephone calls as her grandchildren became located across the United States.

Ellen also enjoyed traveling with her husband. They traveled to Europe in 1991 and toured England, Paris and Amsterdam. They failed to tell their family where they were going so Billy and Ellen were missing for a few weeks. The family was used to them being gone for a few days, but a few weeks was unusual.

While Billy was searching for gas engines and tractors around the country, Ellen made many friends; many of whom she maintained contact with in her later years. After Billy's death the girls learned from a longtime friend in Spain that Ellen was known by many of the men in the tractor world as "Peaches" since she was such a peach to put up with all of them and Billy during their many tractor and engine jaunts.

She is preceded in death
by her parents, husband, Billy Lynn Overturf, and granddaughter, Kara Kay Knutson.

Survivors include her brother, Gary Kubicek and wife JoAnnette of Oak; daughters, Pamela Lynn Pearson and husband Randall of Davenport and Kay Ilene Knutson and husband Richard of Alma; grandchildren, Scott Pearson of Lincoln, Reese Pearson and wife Chaaron of Alexandria, Va.; Beth Schweitzer and husband Jason of Atlanta, Ga.; and great-grandchildren, Ava and Braylin Schweitzer and Dashiell Pearson.

Graveside services were held on Sept. 29 from the Nelson Cemetery in Nelson with Pastor David Johnson officiating.

Honorary pallbearers were Jason Schweitzer, Tim Sizer, Reese Pearson, Scott Pearson and Mitchell Kubicek.

Interment was in the Nelson Cemetery at Nelson.

Memorials are suggested to Kara Knutson Memorial Scholarship Fund or to the family

they were married, and after retiring purchased a fifth extensively throughout the United States.

known for her beautiful crafts, love of children, and being a very proper, spiffy lady.

in death by her parents, John and "Tilly" Ahrens; her three husbands, brothers, Milton, Everett, Alfred, and Elden; and sisters, Vera Deal and Bernice

Thistle Control During October

It's thistle time again. Even if they are hard to see, this is the time to control them.

Timing is everything. That's particularly true with thistle control. October to early November is one of the best times to use herbicides.

Did you have thistles this year? If so, walk out in those infested areas this week. Look close and you find many thistle seedlings. Most thistle seedlings this fall will be small, in a flat, rosette growth form, and they are very sensitive now to certain herbicides. So spray this fall and thistles will not be a big problem next year.

Several herbicides are effective and recommended for thistle control. Maybe the most effective is a newer herbicide called Milestone, or a combination of Milestone and 2,4-D called Forefront.

Two other very effective herbicides are Tordon 22K and Grazon. Be careful with Tordon and Grazon since they also can kill woody plants, including trees you might want to keep. The 2,4-D also works well while it's warm, but you will get better thistle control by using a little less 2,4-D and adding a small amount of Banvel or dicamba to the mix.

Other herbicides also can control thistles in pastures – like Redeem, Cimarron, and Curtail. No matter which weed killer you use, though, be sure to read and follow label instructions, and be sure to spray on time.

Next year, avoid overgrazing your pastures so your grass stands get thicker and compete with any new thistle seedlings.

Give some thought now to thistle control during October and November. Your pastures can be cleaner next spring.

Ryan Bulin of Bruning is a member of the University of Nebraska Soil Judging Team which was runner-up in the Region 5 Soil Judging contest held Sept. 20 in Missouri.

The University of Nebraska finished runner-up behind Iowa State in the Region 5 Soil Judging contest held in Missouri on Sept. 20.

The runner-up finish allows the team to compete in the National Collegiate Soil Judging Contest in Platteville, Wisc., in March.

It is sponsored by the American Society of Agronomy and the Soil Science Society of America.

The national contest has been held annually since 1961. It helps students learn how to describe soil properties, identify different kinds of soils and associated landscape features and interpret soil information for agriculture and other land uses.

UNL hopes to unseat defending national champion Virginia Tech. The team is based out of the School of Natural Resource's conservation and survey division.

Ryan Bulin of Bruning, a former Thayer Central student, is a member of the 12-person team.

PHS Reminds Public Of Need For Flu Immunization

The Public Health Solutions District Health Department reminds the public of the advent of the flu season and the time for everyone six months and older to get immunized against seasonal flu. CDC also recommends specifically that all the health care providers be immunized.

The flu is a contagious respiratory illness caused by influenza viruses that infect the nose, throat and lungs. Every flu season is different so we often forget that influenza is an illness that can bring with it serious illness and complications leading to hospitalization and sometimes death.

Getting vaccinated each year provides the best protection against influenza for you and your community throughout the season.

The vaccine is important for those at high risk of developing serious complications like pneumonia if they get the flu. These include pregnant women, those age 65 and older, and those with neurologic and chronic health conditions including asthma, diabetes, lung disease, etc.

People who live with or care for others who are at high risk of developing complications also should be vaccinated every year. This includes household contacts and caregivers of people who are disabled, have neurologic, and/or chronic conditions including asthma, diabetes, lung disease, etc.

If you don't have a regular doctor, and can't find someone locally, the following is a useful tool for finding vaccine in your area. Flu Near You: Vaccine Locator enter your zip code or call the PHS health department.

Getting vaccinated each year provides the best protection against influenza.

An annual flu vaccine is needed because flu viruses change constantly, and new flu viruses may appear each year. The flu vaccine is formulated each year to keep up with the flu viruses as they change. It takes about two weeks after vaccination for antibodies to develop in the body and provide protection.

The flu season typically runs from October through April, but it varies and can run into May. Flu activity commonly peaks in the U.S. in January or February.

PHS provides immunizations to school-aged children through the SKIP Flu Program with the support of the county boards, schools and hospitals in the District.

Individuals with questions or difficulty accessing immunizations should call the PHS office 402-826-3880.

Lola Johnson attended the 125th anniversary celebration of St. John's Lutheran Church of Cordova on Sunday. This was the church of her grandparents and her mom when she was young. The theme for the day "Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today and forever. O God our help in Ages Past, Our Hope for years to Come." There were three of St. John's former pastors, the pastor now, two sons of one of the former pastors, one is a pastor now and the other son played the trumpet with the organist. The choir sang at both services and the music at both services was very inspirational and you left Cordova with a feeling of "On your way rejoicing." There were 240 in attendance at the noon luncheon and the church celebration.

Bev Ott of Cedar Park, Texas, and Virginia Ott of Republican City joined Claudia Myers of Geneva, Lois Norder, Sharon Hulse, Myra Kluck and Joan Langhorst for dinner at the cafe Thursday noon. Bev was a former teacher in Bruning.

Belvidere

By LaDonna Avers

Paula and Logan McGinness had a nice surprise this weekend. Granddaughters Stephanie and Corinne Bohling from North Carolina met them for dinner at York Sunday evening. They had been in Lexington visiting their father Marlin Bohling. Neither one had been in Nebraska for quite a while so Paula and Logan had a really good time during their visit.

Bonnie Priefert drove to Omaha this last week to spend some time with her daughter Jennifer who lives there. They had a good time shopping and visiting.

Logan and Paula McGinness have received word from his brother, Jim McGinness, that Jim's wife Janice has suffered two broken ankles. No word has been received about whether or not she is home at this time.

Weekend visitors of Ruth Joachim were Kirk and Wanda Joachim from Doniphan. Besides visiting they were able to help with the harvesting while they were here.

Norm and Ila Currey are enjoying a visit from their son Mike who is here from California. He will be staying for a couple of weeks.

The Woman's Club will have a booth at the Historical Society's Fall Festival. There will have four different filled baskets on which visitors to the festival can buy raffle tickets. They will also be selling tickets to the Johnny Ray Gomez show to be held October 28.

The display of "A Stitch in Time" will be available for viewing at the Thayer County Museum Annex for a month after the Fall Festival. It is an interesting display of handiwork done by homemakers in the past that viewers will enjoy.

Belvidere History Note

In the early 1870's Avis Polage Moore's father, Lewis Polage came to America. He spent two years in Champaign, Ill. He then had the urge to migrate farther west. He arrived in Belvidere by train.

In 1886 he was married to May Standard, a pioneer of Belvidere. She taught in a school near Bruning which was the Prairie Star school. In those days there were no roads, just a bridle path or trail across the prairie.

As reported by Avis Moore

Belvidere Whistle Stop Station Nears Completion

Ten members of the Whistle Stop Station group met Wednesday evening at the Belvidere Community Hall to make some decisions on finishing up the Whistle Stop Station.

The construction crew has completed the structure and the shake shingles have been installed. Train buffs can begin using the station to watch the trains go whistling by.

The water is in but the electricity is yet to be installed. The landscaping and sidewalks are also on the agenda. Some thought that a picnic table and benches would be nice to have and perhaps some trees on the north side to break the cold north wind in the winter. No decisions about the trees have been made at this time.

A number of the group went to the site to mark old trees that need to be removed and to inspect the building as it stands now. There is a parking area in the back for visitors.

It has been decided to wait to have a dedication at a later date when it is finished, landscaping and all.

New Acreage Reporting Dates for 2013

Producers of perennial forage and fall-seeded small grains must submit their 2013 acreage report for those crops to the Farm Service Agency, and to their crop insurance agent, by Nov. 15, 2012.

In prior years, reports for these crops were not due to FSA until late June/early July. "This change is part of an initiative at the national level to align acreage reporting dates between FSA and the Risk Management Agency (RMA), and reduce the crop reporting burden on producers," announced Dan Steinkruger, Nebraska FSA state executive director.

Crop acreage reports are essential to maintaining eligibility for multiple FSA program benefits, and establishing a record of historical cropping. Currently proposed Farm Bill legislation continues the crop reporting requirement.

"Timely acreage reporting not only maintains a producer's eligibility for traditional conservation, price support and production program benefits, but is also a requirement for critical disaster program assistance," noted Steinkruger.

Nov. 15 is also the crop insurance sales closing date for forage production in Nebraska. "Given the 2012 drought across the state, farmers and ranchers should consider their insurance options including the new Pasture, Rangeland and Forage (PRF) Rainfall Index program to cover pasture drought losses," said Steinkruger.

Producers are reminded of the importance to accurately report the crop, crop acreage, intended use, irrigation practice, planting date and producer shares. Prevented planted acres must be reported within 15 days of the final planting date.

Failed acres must be reported to FSA within 15 days of when the loss becomes apparent for non-insurable crops, or otherwise prior to disposition of the crop. Contact your local FSA office with questions or to schedule an acreage certification appointment.

Thayer Central's Greg Dightman makes his way around a Titan block earlier this season. Against Centura Friday night, Dightman had 137 yards for five receptions.

FOOTBALL

Titans

Thayer Central collected its fourth win on the season Friday as the football team beat Centura 31-8. Three new school records were also established as Greg Dightman received three touchdowns in one game and marked 137 receiving yards in one game. Caleb Goedeken also set a new record with four touchdown passes in a game. The quarterback was good for 239 total passing yards in 9-for-18 tosses.

"I thought our kids bounced back very well Friday after taking our first loss of the season in the Doniphan-Trumbull game," said Titans coach Josh Lanik. "We came out very strong on both sides of the ball and played very well overall."

Thayer Central scoring started right away when Goedeken connected with Dightman on a 60 yard pass for a touchdown. Goedeken then ended the first period on a one-yard keeper for score.

Thayer Central's next three touchdowns came on passes as Goedeken connected with Dightman again for 11 yards, Kalen Wenske for 41 yards and Dightman for a third time on 13 yards.

Coach Lanik stated he thought the team did a much better job of tackling as the evening went on. "Centura tried multiple different things and our kids did an excellent job adjusting on the fly," he said.

Thayer Central hosts Superior this Friday, Oct. 5. This will be the Titans' first performance on the new field.

Eagles

Bruning-Davenport/Shickley annihilated Red Cloud Friday night 58-12 to boost its current record to 4-1 as they head into Bruning-Davenport's homecoming week. "We played at a very high level," said BDS Coach Mark Rotter.

The squad will take on Franklin at the Bruning field Friday night, Oct. 5. Kickoff is at 7 p.m.

In the contest against Red Cloud Ryan Tegtmeier led the Eagles in passing, going 8-for-9 for 191 yards and four touchdowns. Grant Norder was 3-for-3 passing for 42 yards and one touchdown.

All BDS scoring came in the first half of the game. Tegtmeier connected with Chris Rohr for 50 yards, Wyatt Schoenholz for 18 yards, Nathan Hendrickson for 15 yards and Norder for 49 yards before Norder finished out the first quarter on a 25-yard run.

In the second period, Norder connected with Schoenholz for 25 yards followed by Shane Heyen who went home on a five-yard run, and finally Norder scored again on a two-yard scamper.

VOLLEYBALL

Titans

The Thayer Central Lady Titans entered into a hefty schedule of volleyball starting with the Southern quadrangular on Saturday, Sept. 22, followed by the two-day Hastings St. Cecilia tournament Sept. 25 and 27, and finishing with the Johnson County Central Invite, Sept. 29.

Southern Quad

In the lengthy tourney winning over Cross County 25-10, 25-19 and Red Cloud 25-10, 25-16 on Tuesday, but falling to Heartland 24-26, 25-21, 17-25, and Wood River 21-25, 26-28, on Thursday.

"This was a battle again against Heartland as we have now played for the second time in five days," said Coach Wiedel. "Our serve receive and serving was spot on; however, hitting errors and defensive break downs caused us problems being able to put them away in set one."

Baden led the way with 11 kills and two ace blocks while Ashley Petersen had two ace serves and Tietjen provided 14 assists.

Against Wood River Allison Tietjen led the loss with six kills while Petersen again had two ace serves and Tarryn Tietjen provided 13 assists.

Johnson CC Invite

The Lady Titans went 1-1 over the course of the tourney defeating Humboldt-Table Rock-Steinauer 26-24, 25-12, and the host team 25-20, 25-15, but falling to Exeter-Milligan 25-23, 20-25, 25-19.

"This was quite a battle of two rated teams," Coach Wiedel commented about the Exeter-Milligan match. "Both teams used main hitters in the offense to gain the advantage. Our main hitter, Bridgette, had quite a match with 13 kills, four ace serves and four ace blocks."

Against HTRS and Johnson CC, Baden led in hitting with 10 kills per game. She also provided two ace blocks and two ace serves in the games. The Titans (11-5) spend the rest of the regular season on the road - four games remain including Blue Hill Thursday, Oct. 4, Superior Oct. 11, Wilber-Clatonia Oct. 16 and Lincoln Christian invitational Oct. 20.

Eagles

The Bruning-Davenport/Shickley volleyball team defeated the neighboring Deshler Dragons in three straight sets Tuesday, Sept. 25, at Deshler, 25-13, 25-13, 15-15.

Makaleigh Yantzie led the offense with 15 kills on the night. Taylor Houck added six kills and three ace serves, while also providing two ace blocks for the defense. Christy Swartzendruber covered the back of the court with 20 digs while Matyson Kleinschmidt provided 18 assists.

No information for Deshler (8-2) was available.

Two nights later, the BDS squad hosted Giltner (12-2) who handed the Lady Eagles their second loss on the season. BDS is currently 13-2.

Against Giltner, Yantzie and Swartzendruber combined for six and five kills respectively, while Swartzendruber added two ace serves and Yantzie had one ace block. Jaycie Hoins provided seven assists.

The Eagles will not see the home court again as they finish out the regular season on the road. On Tuesday, Oct. 9, the team participates in a triangular with McCool Junction and Dorchester at McCool Junction, then plays at High Plains Thursday Oct. 11, followed by the Crossroads Conference at York Oct. 13-18. Rounding out the schedule, the Eagles head to Harvard on Oct. 19, and Palmer for a triangular with Lawrence-Nelson Oct. 23.

Titans JV

The Freshman and Junior Varsity volleyball teams earned two wins on Sept. 20 against the Milford Eagles. The freshman team won 25-22, 25-19.

"Brinley Linton played a solid game as our primary passer," said Thayer Central Coach Carlee Kenner. "McKenna Tietjen was once again the top server with 12 points followed by Cheyenne Tietjen with six points and Mariah Hintz with four.

The team improves to a 3-4 record with the win.

The Junior Varsity team came out slow but managed to pull out a victory in two sets with scores of 25-20, 25-15.

Rachel Johnson scored 11 points and McKenna had eight points. The team now stands with a 5-1 record.

Lady Titans take third at UNK

Deshler competes at TVC

The Thayer Central Titans faced two cross country meets last week including the large University of Nebraska-Kearney invitational on Monday, Sept. 24, and the Syracuse invitational on Friday, Sept. 28.

At Kearney, the girls' team finished the meet with a score of 100 for third place in a field of 22 teams. The boys finished eighth out of 25 teams.

"The boys and girls both competed very well in the meet," said Thayer Central coach Andy Long. "It was a chance to see where we stack up against Class D competition. It also provided the atmosphere of a big time meet with so many runners involved. I felt our runners stepped up to the opportunity."

Madison Reece led the way with an 11th place finish in a field of 162 running with a time of 16:50.5. Other finishes included Bailey Linton (17:16.2), Rachel Heitmann (18:34.4) and Shawna Timmerman (19:14).

For the boys, Adam Hellbusch led the way placing 19th in a field of 191 with a time of 18:31.2. Others racing included Russ Heitmann (18:48.2), Landon Schmitt (19:47.3), Ben Baden (20:49.1), and Heath Fink (20:50.2).

At Syracuse, the Lady Titans finished fifth in a field of ten teams. Reece again led the way with a tenth place finish in a time of 16:22, followed by Linton (16:44), Heitmann (17:35), Timmerman (17:50), and Cottam (20:35).

For the boys, Hellbusch finished 13th in a time of 17:42 followed by Heitmann (18:24), Schmitt (19:00), Fink (19:51), Baden (20:04).

The Titans head into Southern Nebraska Conference competition Thursday Oct. 4 at Centennial in Utica. The meet begins at 5 p.m.

Deshler Dragons

The Deshler Dragons attended the Twin Valley Conference meet at Lawrence on Sept. 27. "We had a good meet at Lawrence," said Dragons coach Shannon LeFave. "None of our runners have ever run at Lawrence so it was a bit of a challenge to figure out how fast to go out, but they still had pretty good times for the terrain."

Lydia Kirchhoff finished in sixth place with a time of 20:26.3 while Christina Hoops finished tenth in a time of 22:18.5. For the boys, Noah Burger finished eighth with a time of 21:36.1 while Craig Meyer finished 15th in a time of 23:01 and Benjamin Hoops finished 20th in a time of 24:26.

The Deshler Dragons cross country team also competed at the UNK invitational.

Noah Burger led the boys' team finishing 49th in 20:21.8. "Noah's placement was first in the Class D schools," said Coach LeFave. "He ran among 191 runners."

Lydia Kirchhoff led the girls with a time 20:01 for 77th in a field of 162 runners. Other competitors for Deshler included Christina Hoops (21:35), Craig Meyer (21:39.3) and Benjamin Hoops (23:28.5).

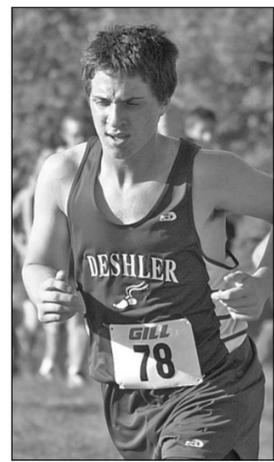

"Over 25 schools competed at the UNK invite which is the largest cross country meet in Nebraska," LeFave added.

The Dragons head to McCool Junction this Thursday, Oct. 4. Districts will be held Oct. 11 at Branched Oak State Park north of Lincoln.

Thayer Central's Bailey Linton returns to run for the Lady Titans as a member of the girls' cross country team. This is the first year the competitor has enjoyed being part of a team as Thayer Central has not had enough girls to make up a full team for a number of years.

Noah Burger led all Class D schools in the boys race at the UNK meet last week. The Dragon runner finished the race in 20:21.8 for 49th in a field of 191 competitors.

Thayer Central senior Ashley Petersen gets ready to serve against Cross County at the Hastings St. Cecilia tournament Sept. 25. Petersen served two aces in the contest.

"We opened the tourney with a two-set loss to Heartland even though we hit and passed the ball as well as we have done all year," said Titans coach Kurk Wiedel, "but during key points, unforced errors and poor choices caused us to lose points in key times of the match."

Bridgette Baden and Kelsey Long let the loss, 21-25, 24-26, with nine kills each while Baden had five ace blocks and two ace serves.

In the second contest, the Titans defeated Malcol 25-16, 25-14. Baden again led with eight kills and 14 digs. Long had two aces and Tarryn Tietjen provided 12 assists.

In the final contest against the hosting Southern team, Thayer Central went 25-14, 25-17 for the win. Megan Bulin joined Baden at the net each posting seven kills while Tietjen provided 14 assists and three ace serves. Rachel Johnson had one ace block.
